Explore the lush Rajaji National Park by Editor123

Article published on December 10th 2011 | Travel

Rajaji National Park is one of the most beautiful wildlife and nature parks of India. The park is spread over ten acres. It is here that you can enjoy the beauty of wildlife in their natural habitat even as you are treated to a luxurious lifestyle in one of the Rajaji National Park resorts. The resort is set amidst thick lush and green forest that is interspersed with the Ganges and other water bodies. In this serene environment you will become a part of the habitat that is shared by tigers and leopards, bears and cobras, deer and monkeys.

Rajaji National Park is operational between October and May. The park gives an opportunity to the visitors to not only see wildlife in their habitat but also enjoy hiking and biking or just the quiet in the environs of the forest, the mountains all around and streams. The national park is the confluence of three sanctuaries and a part of the three districts of Uttarakhand, Pauri Garwal, Dehradun and Hardwar. The park is also easily accessible from any part of the country by air, rail or road. For lovers of wildlife there are jeep safaris, elephant safaris, and bird watching and night safaris as well. Forrest, one of the Rajaji National Park resorts has twenty excellent cottage tents. All the cottages are made of materials that are eco-friendly and therefore complement their surroundings.

The cottages at Forrest, Rajaji National Park resorts, have attached toilets and bath with both hot and cold water. There is provision of intercom and tea/coffee maker in each room as well as electric blankets and hot water bags when the temperature drops. Since activities at Rajaji National Park will tire you, considerable care is taken to ensure that the best of cuisines, Indian, Continental and Kumaoni, are served during meals.

Rajaji National Park resorts have adequate recreation organized for guests. These include nature walks and safaris such as the elephant safari and the jeep safari. Wildlife photography is on offer all the time while fishing and angling options are available for avid anglers. There are large numbers of trout and Mahaseer to keep them busy. Besides these there are other activities that include bird watching, bicycling and water rafting in the Ganges. Finally, there are excellent offers for guests during the forthcoming Christmas and New Year period (23 Dec 2011-02 Jan 2012).
