Article Side
Explore the Most Sacred Destination of India, Uttarakhand by Mahi Manral

Article published on January 20th 2012 | Travel

Home to the heart-gripping attractions and world-famous shrines of Hindu religion including the holy river of India Ganga, Uttarakhand is the most sought after tourist destination located at northern part of the country. Well-famous for its virgin attractions and pleasant climatic conditions, it has established itself very well in Indiaâ€™s tourism map and encourages tourists to visit this state from every nook and corner of the world all the year round. Often referred as Dev Bhoomi, is a godly creation, where one can see Mother Nature in its true form. The land of gods, the home of Himalayas, it is truly a paradise on earth. The refreshing air, the pure water, the chilling snow, the lofty mountains, the spectacular landscapes and the small villages makes this state truly a delight.

It is an ideal holidaying place for those who wish to spend their vacations in the lap of mother-nature. This beautiful state is primarily made up of two regions namely Garhwal and Kumaon. Some of the popular tourism activities in Uttarakhand include Char Dham Yatra conducts in Badrinath, Kedarnath, Gangotri and Yamunotri, River Rafting in national and holy river Ganga, Skiing Activities and wildlife safari as it is bestowed with several wildlife parks and sanctuaries. Whatever your purpose of visiting, it perfectly knows how to make it possible in Uttarakhand.

Refreshing hills, snow-laden peaks, lush green meadows, mesmerizing waterfalls, meandering rivers, peaceful lakes, lush green forests and ranges of floras and faunas, what else makes Uttarakhand a tourists delight as it offers every thing to the nature-lovers. Well if you are visiting this state with spiritual objective then must head to Haridwar and Rishikesh the most sacred city draws the attention of many from every nook and corner of the world. The common and major attraction in the both places is sacred river Ganga draws the attention of visitors from across the world. At Rishikesh, Ganga leaves the mountains and joins the plains for her long journey. Due to calmness and less flow of water people can enjoy there river rafting a popular tourists activity in this place. Ram Jhula, Lakshman Jhula, temples and ashrams are the few attractions nearby to the Rishikesh, which enhance the beauty of this place and Uttarakhand tourism.

Apart from you can also visit to Haridwar just 32 km from Rishikesh considered home to the river Ganga is an important pilgrimage city. The holy city of Haridwar, also termed as â€˜Gateway of Godsâ€™ i also known as Mayapuri, Kapila, Gangadwar, etc. Associated with both Lord Shiva and Vishnu, it is among the seven sacred cities of India. Both the places Haridwar and Rishikesh are very significant in attractions point of view. Considering touristâ€™s vacations and values we have made Rishikesh Haridwar packages in such way which brings top sought attractions to the visitors and give them unforgettable holidaying experience.

Apart from spiritual tour if you are wildlife-lover and wish to explore the species of birds and animals then also it is perfect place to get in, as it bestowed with several wildlife national parks and sanctuaries. Founded in 1936, Jim Corbett National Park is one of the major attractions in Uttarakhand, Nainital. Some of the popular activities that one can experience through Jim Corbett tour packages are bird watching, elephant safari and many more.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/explore-the-most-sacred-destination-of-india-uttarakhand.htm - Article Side

Mahi Manral - About Author:
Mahi Manral is an eminent analyst and writer in Travel & Tours related topics. He has authored many books on a Mussoorie Hill Station Packages and a Jim Corbett National Park. Find more information at a http://www.uttarakhandtour.org/.

Article Keywords:
Jim Corbett Tour Packages, Rishikesh Haridwar Tour Packages

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!