Falls, Lakes, Gardens and Fun in Mussoorie Tourism

by Emma Dsuza

Article published on February 15th 2012 | Travel

Mussoorie is a wonderful and exciting hill station that is also known as the Queen of Hills popularly. 34 kms away from Dehradun, it is situated in the Garhwali hills at an altitude of 2003 mts above the sea level. Every major city is connected to this hill station making it easily accessible to everyone. Mussoorie tourism has been promoted from a very long time as it is also well connected to pilgrimage sites of Hindus. You can get your Mussoorie tour package that will include like Badrinath, Kedarnath, Yamunotri, Haridwar, Rishikesh, and Gangotri.

Mussoorie is actually a name of a plant that is found in abundance at this hill station due to which the place itself has been named after it. Over the time, this hill station got developed as a centre of education, business, tourism and beauty. Mussoorie tourism hence is very popular. Mussoorie is well connected by railways and roads. You can also find the nearest airport Jolly Grant so that you can get set and go on Mussoorie tour. Traveling by road and train could be great fun, as you would not miss a single rendezvous unless you are asleep.

There are some important places in the Mussoorie tour to visit.

Gun Hill

Here you have a ropeway ride to view the second highest peak of Mussoorie. The distance of ropeway is only 400 mtrs and it is indeed thrilling to those you do it rarely.

Municipal Garden

It is a beautiful garden serving as a picnic spot, having an artificial mini lake with boating facility.

Childer's Lodge

It is known to be the highest peak of Mussoorie located near Lal Tibba.

There are many falls in Mussoorie tourism to make your holiday like:

Bhatta Fall

It is one more 7 kms from Mussoorie on Mussoorie-Dehradun road. It is an ideal spot for picnic and bathing.

Kempty Fall

It is 15 kms from Mussoorie on the Yamunotri Road. This fall has an altitude of 4500 ft.

Jharipani Fall

It is a beautiful waterfall, 8.5 kms from Mussoorie on Mussoorie-Jharipani road.

Nag Devta Temple

Situated on Cart Mackenjie Road, it is an ancient temple, about 6 kms from Mussoorie. You can capture a charming view of Mussoorie and Doon Valley together. You would not feel bereft of God on Mussoorie tour but the opposite.

Mussoorie Lake

6 kms from Mussoorie, situated on Mussoorie - Dehradun road, it is a recently developed picnic spot full of delight that could be a part of hill station fun like Mussoorie tourism.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/falls-lakes-gardens-and-fun-in-mussoorie-tourism.htm - Article Side

Emma Dsuza - About Author:
Emma D'suza is an expert author for travel articles who provides information about international holidays including a Mussoorie Tourism. Get all exclusive information about a Mussoorie Tour and a International Travel Packages

Article Keywords:
Mussoorie tour, Mussoorie tourism

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!