Going camping in a camper trailer offers a unique blend of becoming one with nature while still enjoying many of the comforts of home. Though you may be sleeping under the stars and in the wilderness, you can still do it on a bed and with your favorite pillows. This trend of going camping using a camper trailer in Sydney is becoming popular with people who desire to have a great holiday or a vacationing experience.

A camper trailer or a tent trailer is considered to be the most comfortable and practical way to go on a holiday. The major reason for this is that they are a combination between a modern caravan and a luxury tent. A camper trailer in Sydney is ideal for families or touring couples as the double beds at each end of the trailer provide plenty of bed space.

Advantages of using a camper trailer for going on a holiday are as below:

â€¢They are a very compact yet comfortable unit which is ideal for touring as well as storage.

â€¢Camper trailers can be fully set up in less than 15 minutes.

â€¢They offer large living and sleeping areas and provide plenty of cupboard storage â€¢They are fitted with cooking appliances and a refrigerator as well as a dinette and comfortable seating.

â€¢Some trailers have pressurized water system which will ensure constant flow of fresh water.

A few years ago, camping tents were used as the main resource for staying put at a place for people who enjoyed camping holidays; but these days a camper trailer has become a much more popular. There obviously is a doubt in the minds of the camping community whether to buy a camper trailer or still go for the traditional tent stay while going on a holiday.

There are three major advantages that camper trailers have which make them favorites ahead of the tent.

1)Comfort â€“ One of the biggest advantages of camper trailers is they provide a better level of comfort than camping in an ordinary tent as they are certainly more spacious.

2)All in one â€“ Camper trailers are a compact unit and this allows the traveler to carry all the required items for a camping vacation, all in one go.

3)Less or no preparation â€“ A camper trailer saves your time of preparation for a camping vacation as all you have to do is attach the trailer to your car and off you go.
