Very famous amongst newlyweds, Kullu Manali honeymoon packages offer a great time to couples who have just begun their married life and ensure that their honeymoon becomes memorable to them.

What all Manali tour packages Include?

Normally, Manali tour packages and Kullu Manali honeymoon packages include stay in hotel, complimentary breakfast and dinner, pick up and drop in services till railway station and sight-seeing. Some of the places that are an integral part of Kullu Manali tourism and one just cant miss while being in the city are:

Hadimba Temple

A very famous temple that dates back to 1553 has a pagoda roof and is the abode of goddess Hadimba, the wife of Pandava brother Bhima. Also known as the Dhungiri temple, is a four story temple made of wood and has intricate carving over its walls depicting motifs of cosmic dancers, animals and mythological characters. The famous Dassahara festival of Kullu Manali is celebrated here with great show and pomp and processions start from this temple only.

Rahalla Falls and Rohtang Pass

A major attraction on Manali tour packages, Rahalla Fall is 51 km away from Manali towards Rohtang Pass. The Pass used to be a trade route long back and is open for tourists every year till November every year. River Beas flows from here which is the abode of Beas Kund, a very holy place for Hindus.

Monasteries

There are three monasteries in Manali which are popular for their beautiful structure and the tibetian market outside them. People love to visit these monasteries and later shop from the Tibetian market. There is even a Gompa built in Manali that is considerably recent and has beautiful wall paintings.

Vashist Springs

Situated at three kilometers from Manali is the Vashist sulphur spring which is a highlight of Manali tour packages. It has very old temples and sulphur baths with medicinal value are situated just beyond these temples.

The other interesting places to visit in Kullu Manali include previous capital of Kullu, Jagatsukh, Solang Valley, a great place for paragliding, rock climbing and skiing, Kothi, a beautiful valley, Manu Temple and Naggar.

Various good hotels are situated all over Manali that offer great hospitality to guests. Even some very good eating joints are there on the Mall Road. Kadhi Chawal is the local favorite here which is a must try.
