Article published on January 11th 2012 | Travel

The Ambleside hotels in Lake District are ideal venues for corporate events, business conferences, celebrations, weekend holiday etc. The rooms in these hotels are provided with a plethora of facilities and services. Facilities offered by these hotels include garden restaurants, gym, health club & spa, indoor swimming pool and entertainment clubs. The conference venues are provided with free parking, refreshment corner and efficient and cordial services to the invitees. The beautiful and enchanting village of Ambleside is just a few minutes off from the hotel Ambleside which is on the shore of the Lake Windermere. The tourists who stay in these hotels are offered the best services at the most competitive prices. The local and seasonal dishes served in these hotels are rich in taste and variety. The menu offered here for breakfast as well as dinner consists of specialties like shrimps, sausages, bread beef, damsons etcâ€¦ The restaurants are opened to guests as well as non-residents. The wines served in the bar of the hotel include local beers from Ambleside and Dent and they have the characteristic local flavor.

All the premier hotels at Lake District provide ample selection of rooms and offer all latest facilities and comforts. Hotel Ambleside maintains the atmosphere of village guesthouse thereby making the customers feel quite homely. The luxury rooms are provided with TV, DVD Player, coffee making facilities etc. Meals, dinner and breakfast will be served in the rooms also incase required by the customers. Ambleside hotels also include small countryside hotels which are just few feet away from the town. These hotels are situated in the middle of gardens with free parking places. Many among these hotels are decades old. All the hotels are known for their warm and friendly services and calm and comfortable atmosphere. A few of the hotels are functioning in ancient historic buildings.

The hotels here cater to the different requirements of customers who come from different places and for different purposes like a luxury weekend, a business trip etc. The Lake District is synonymous with natural beauty and the hotels here are well equipped to meet the specific requirements of the guest. Those who stay in these hotels will have the opportunity to visit the famous Hill Top which was the residence of Beatrix Potter. House of the childrenâ€™s author is of great attraction to the visitors. The house is still so lively that the visitors feel the great author is still living there. Dove Cottage, the house of William Wordsworth is another location for tourists.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/for-luxury-in-a-countryside.htm - Article Side

Fredrikbell - About Author:
Fredrik Bell is an author for regentlakes website. He is a famous article writer on business articles. If you are searching for most luxurious a ambleside hotels stop searching at our website, here we provide stunning setting with the comfort of a new luxury a hotels in ambleside. For more details, please visit our website.

Article Keywords:
ambleside hotel,hotel ambleside,ambleside hotels,hotels in ambleside

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!