Getting Married in NYC with Style by Christina Kevin

Article published on April 18th 2012 | Travel

Do you wish to get married in the most exciting and glamorous city of the world? If this is your desire, then look no further as the city of New York offers endless possibilities of a romantic and memorable wedding that is limited only by your imagination. From romantic weddings in Central Park on first class limos to adventurous weddings on the water, NYC has too much to offer. New York, the liveliest city of the United States which is also famous with a title of 'a city that never sleeps' is surrounded by iconic skyline and famous landmarks. The city houses some of the most beautiful churches, synagogues, mosques, historical buildings and parks around the world.

In order to get married in the New York City, you will need to get a license from the City Clerk's Marriage Bureau, which can be picked up a minimum of 24 hours before. Las Vegas was known as the only quick wedding capital of the world, but recently, the city mayor of New York City, Bloomberg proposed to take this title away from Las Vegas and make New York City, a new wedding capital of the United States. Now you can get married in the city of New York in the spur of a moment. Itâ€™s never easy, cheap and stress-free to get married especially in a busy city. Hiring limo rental services for your wedding can be a great idea.

A superior class limousine service lets you arrive and depart your wedding ceremony in ultimate luxury and with style. Hiring a limousine for your special day will make you the talk of the town. With a limousine on your special day, you can be sure that there is enough space for all those who need to be there to accompany you to the event. The amenities in a limousine will double the fun and thrill of your special day especially the champagne. As a wedding is extremely stressful ceremony and you are almost exhausted at the end of the day. A chauffeur driven limousine will take away your stress and you wonâ€™t need to worry about roads and directions of where you have to reach. Choosing a premium quality limo rental company can be a little tricky at times.

'Bridge limo services' is your premier partner for chauffeur driven world class super luxury limousine services in the United States. They have a virtual fleet of all the latest models of luxury limousines that are regularly maintained and serviced to ensure the optimum level satisfaction of their valued customers. Bridge limousine is known as having the largest database of branches around the United States. Their virtual fleet of vehicles features sedans, SUVs, stretch limos, vans and buses. Their chauffeurs are highly experienced, licensed, courteous and professionally trained. They always make sure that you get a VIP treatment on your special day. After the reception, their chauffeurs whisk you away privately to your honeymoon location according to your plans.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/getting-married-in-nyc-with-style.htm - Article Side

Christina Kevin - About Author:
Hiring a limo rental services for your wedding can be a great idea. a Bridge limo services is your premier partner for chauffeur driven world class super luxury limousine services in the United States.

Article Keywords:
first class limos, limo rental, limo rental company, Bridge limo services

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!