Goa: a paradise that you should explore! by John Wood

Article published on December 29th 2011 | Travel

Sandwiched between the Western Ghats on one side and the Arabian Sea on the other, Goa is undoubtedly one of the most popular destinations in Asia. The state leaves an indelible imprint on the minds of tourists who come to explore its landscape with its scenic natural beauty and attractiveness. Those who book their flights to Goa often confess that itâ€™s the virgin sandy beaches, breathtaking countryside and old heritage buildings that add to the stateâ€™s unmatched appeal.

Goa with its mesmerizing waterfalls, lush green timber plantations and aromatic spice farms has earned the sobriquet of a seaside paradise. This small Indian State tucked in one corner is divided into ten main districts namely: Bicholim,Canacona, Margao, Mapusa, Old Goa,Panaji,Pernem, Sanguem, Vasco Da Gama,and Ponda. Each of these districts has at least one famous beach and some of the popular beaches in Goa include Anjuna, Baga,Colva, Cavelossim, Calangute, Majorda,Miramar, Varca, and Vagator. Exploring all these beaches and districts would require at least a week. Most travel agents know this fact and therefore advertise 6N/7D packages to Goa that include cheap flights to Goa sightseeing, accommodation, and meals.

If you are looking for cheap flights to Goa and are looking for a shorter package then you should speak to a travel counselor who will offer you the best rates and even design a customized itinerary to help you to avail the best deals. A customized itinerary will help you make the most of your travel spends.

These customized tours will also include a sightseeing tour of the state that includes a trip to places like the Mayem Lake, Arvalem Waterfalls,Cotigoa Wildlife Sanctuary, Dudhsagar Waterfalls, Bondla Wildlife Sanctuary, Salim Ali Bird Sanctuary, Arvalem Caves,Basilica of Bom Jesus,Cabo Da Rama Fort,Mahalaxmi Temple, Mangueshi Temple, Fort Aguada,Terekhol Fort that are well worth a visit.

After you have been through a sightseeing tour of the state it would be time for some fun and adventure and for that you can head straight to its beaches that offer ample opportunities for adventure sports like diving, kayaking, kiteâ€“surfing, snorkeling, and scuba diving.
