Article Side

Hill station in Nainital by Jason

Article published on March 19th 2012 | Travel

The beautiful town of Nainital located at the foothills of the Kumaon ranges of the outer Himalayas is at its charming best attracting tourists from all over the country to watch its scenic beauty. The Nainital Lake also known as Tri- Rishi-Sarovar is the most prominent landmark of Nainital. Nainital being the most popular summer retreats in northern part of India offers ample opportunity for adventure and sight seeing to travelers. The major factor that contributes to the growth of tourism in Nainital is its cool and healthy climate that makes traveling extremely comfortable.

It is a great delight to watch the major tourists attractions around the Naini Lake in Nainital city of Uttarakhand. A highly venerated place for the pilgrim travelers and among the major tourist attractions is the Naina Devi temple.

The holidaying families and the honeymooners have made the Boat House Club quite popular. A boat ride into the serene lake would surely be an unforgettable experience. There are large numbers of colonial buildings built as their residences and government buildings by the British in Nainital. The flats, Nainital Zoo, Eco Cave Gardens, Snow View, China Peak, Aurobindo Ashram, and Dorothy's Seat are the other major tourists attractions of Nainital.

The need for the lodging options in Nainital has increased considerably because of the ever-increasing Tourism. Depending on the budget and comfort are many categories of hotels that are available in Nainital. Some of the famous hotels that guarantee best of facilities and services are Palace Belvedere, Royal Hotel, Shervani Hill Top Inn, The Naini Retreat, Vikram Vintage Inn, Hotel Everest, Mountain Trail, Swiss Hotel, The Pine Crest, Cedar Lodge, Elphinestone Hotel, Hotel Capri and Hotel Channi Raja.

As Nainital is one of the major hill stations of north India it is convenient to reach there. The airport at Phool Bagh, which is 72 kms away, is closed for public flights, so the nearest airport is in New Delhi. The Kathgodam Railway Station that connects Delhi, Agra, Bareilly, and Lucknow is the nearest railway station from Nainital. All the major cities of the neighboring states are connected to Nainital by well-maintained roads.

Your trip to Nainital will definitely be a delightful experience whether you are a nature lover, a honeymooner, a family holidaymaker or a pilgrim.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/hill-station-in-nainital.htm - Article Side

Jason - About Author:
Melwin Pinto is a well know travel and tourist guide. He is popular among the travelers who has used his services. He has developed his hobby of traveling into popularizing beautiful places in the world. In this article he speaks about a a beautiful hill station known as Dalhouse and also gives his views on these a hill station packages.

Article Keywords:
beautiful hill station, hill station packages

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!