Article Side

How to Plan India Tours?

by Lincoln Harris

Article published on February 9th 2012 | Travel

India is a land of diverse attractions, history, culture, food, festivals, language and religion. Each and every city in India is unique and offers tourists variety of holiday attractions and adventures. The country is a combination of natural beauty and architectural wonders. There are many beautiful locations to explore when you travel to India. India also offers exciting holiday adventures such as trekking, skiing, mountain climbing, camping, cruising and more. Exploring India is best done little by little; you can plan your India trip in four broad categories viz North, South, East and West. By choosing region by region India tour packages, you will have the chance to visit most of the top tourist destinations in India.

North India Tours:

Indiaâ€™s Northern region is an exciting place that includes a number of historical places that remind of the various empires that ruled India in the bygone eras. It has been the historical epicentre of great empires such as the Guptas, Mughals, Mauryas and several Indian empires under the British rule. There are number of states located on the non peninsular region that are worth visiting. Your north India tour package will generally include the following places in North India

â€¢ Jammu and Kashmir

â€¢ Uttaranchal

â€¢ Himachal Pradesh

â€¢ Uttar Pradesh

â€¢ Delhi

â€¢ Punjab

South India Travel Destinations:

South India is abundant in natural beauty that includes fascinating beaches, wildlife sanctuaries, shimmering backwaters and magnificent hills. You can explore plenty of lost kingdoms, study the fascinating heritage or enjoy the amazing wildlife. When you choose South India tour package, you will most likely be visiting some of the popular South Indian states such as

â€¢ Andhra Pradesh

â€¢ Kerala

â€¢ Karnataka

â€¢ Tamil Nadu

â€¢ Lakshadweep, Andaman and Nicobar Islands

Western and Eastern India:

The western and eastern regions of India are best explored separately in two trips during your travel to India. Not just because of the distance, but both these regions have numerous places for sightseeing and also offer other experiences that are best enjoyed at leisure. As part of your West India tours, the package generally comprises of three major states such as Goa, Maharashtra, Rajasthan and Gujarat during which you will be visiting some of the popular places like Panjim, Old Goa, Mumbai, Rann of Kutch, Ajanta and Ellora caves, etc. Your East India tour will include some of the major states in East India such as West Bengal, Orissa, Bihar and Jharkhand. Before you book your India tour packages, make sure that your tour operator includes all the top tourist destinations in India.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/how-to-plan-india-tours.htm - Article Side

Lincoln Harris - About Author:
Lincoln Harris is an expert author for writing articles and currently working for IndiaUnbound in Victoria, Australia and already written so many articles a India Tour Package, a India Tour Packages, India Tours, a Travel to India

Article Keywords:
India Tour Package, India Tour Packages, India Tours, Travel to India

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!