Incredible South Indian experience

by Lincoln Harris

Article published on June 14th 2012 | Travel

The fascinating south India is an exotic land full of beauty and dotted with untouched beaches. The stunning sunrise and sunset is why people flock to the coastal areas of Kerala and Tamil Nadu. Tours to south India start at less than four thousand dollars. After an experience in incredible India you will never want to leave. Travel to the north of India to take in some historical sites and include a trip to the Taj Mahal in Agra. Take a detour to Jaisalmer and the rest of Rajasthan where you will be able to visit palaces and forts of ancient Mughal Dynasties.

Travelling down south

South India is known for its spices, beaches, ayurvedic therapies and yoga techniques. It has a rich cultural background and houses ancient temples that are still standing and in pristine condition. A good Tamil Nadu travel package will take you to the beautiful cities of Pondicherry and Mysore. In Pondicherry, you will experience the Dutch, Chinese and Portuguese influence that has been left on the city. The city is famous for its heritage buildings and mouth watering restaurants. Similarly Mysore and Tanjore are good cities to visit specially to visit the world heritage listed temples and monuments. Tours to south India are plenty and very reasonable for families.

Cities to visit in north India

Besides a Tamil Nadu travel experience, make sure you get the chance to visit north India. Make a trip to Delhi, Rajasthan and Gujarat, or at least one. Raajsthan is dotted with historical buildings like the palaces of Jaipur and the Fort of Fatehpur Sikri. Visit the hawa Mahal and the local bazaars. This is another reflection of Incredible India. While in Delhi, make a trip to the historical Jama Masjid and the Qtub Minar. Visit the Presidential palace and the Indian museum to take a tour back in time.
