

Article published on March 13th 2012 | Travel

Apart from its popularity for hosting the sports events, and one of the best and most competitive sports teams in the world, Barcelona is also a destination famous amongst world tourist, and people interested not just in sports but economy trade fairs, exhibitions, science, arts, fashion, medicine, education, entertainment and finance and commerce. According to surveys and polls, Barcelona has been rated as one of the most livable cities, meaning highly about its lifestyle and culture. People, who live in the city once, fall in love with it, and never feel like leaving. It is one of the richest cities in the European Union, but also one of the most innovative cities in the world. Business, fashion, commerce assets and reputation: Barcelona leads all these fields and gives a whole new meaning to living in heaven.

It is characterized by the typical Mediterranean climate of dry and warm summers, and mild and humid winters. The museums, parks, beaches, churches, and the historic buildings and monuments, out of which, some are even listed in the World Heritage sights, should be visited when one is in Barcelona.

The Sagrada Familia is one the leading tourist attractions in Barcelona. It is also the international symbol of Barcelona, and is a giant temple, which is said to be still under construction. It generates pleasure amongst some and some dislike it. It guarantees a reaction though from the visitors.

If you are a football enthusiast, well you know where you have to be. The Barcelona FC Museum attracts all the football fans all round the year from all round the world. Covering different eras' art and preserving them are the art museums in Barcelona. The city preserves great artists' like Picasso. The National Museum of Art of Catalonia preserves the Romanesque Art. The museums in Barcelona also focus on Spanish and Catalan Art which is displayed in the Barcelona Museum of Contemporary Art. Miro's work fascinates you? Well, the Miro museum showcases his work, and welcomes tourists to gaze and admires his work. Museums for science are built as well.

The Imax Cinema next to the Barcelona Aquarium, which is yet another tourist attraction is also a place hit by tourists round the year. The third dimension is a whole new experience in the theatres there.

You can pick up a cheap plane ticket to the city during the off season time. Any time of the year, flights to Barcelona are running for the incoming tourists.

It is a place rich in culture, architecture, art, sports, literature, cinema, traditions and sports. Owing to the variety of interests that it invokes, it brings in so many tourists all year round. If you buy airline tickets in advance, you might be lucky to get cheap tickets to Barcelona on a cheap plane.

For people looking for happening nightlife, Barcelona is a host to the most amazing nightclubs, bars, cafes and discotheques. Get hold of the cheap flights to Barcelona, pack your bags, arrive and have fun!

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/it-s-not-just-football-we-are-talking-about.htm> - Article Side

Joel Jensen - About Author:

Joel Jensen is an associate editor with Farebuzz.com. The website offers exclusive information related to a flights to Barcelona and a cheap flights. We also provide online reservation for cheap flights, airline prices, cheap airline flights and cheap airfares.

Article Keywords:

airfares, airline deals, airline discount, airline prices, airline tickets, airline tickets for cheap, best airfares, best airline tickets, best fares, buy airline tickets, cheap airfare tickets

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!