Well if Kashmir is Paradise on Earth, Kerala is Godâ€™s own country. Kerala is like a solid final statement in the tourism chapter called India. Kerala is the southernmost state of India and certainly one of the most attractive ones. It is known for its vibrant culture and lush green landscapes. The National Geographic lists it in the 50 must visit places.

Palm lined beaches, lush green hills, sprawling plantations, soothing climate, amazing backwaters and an array of historical monuments and diverse cultural heritage, thatâ€™s what makes Holiday in Kerala one of the most favorites among people.

Some of the top tourist attractions that are covered in the Tours in Kerala are the following:

1.Kovalam: The famous beach town. It has three arc shaped beaches separated by rocky outcrops. They are the Light House Beach, Hawah Beach and the Samudra Beach. These beaches make it one of the most famous beach resorts in the world. It is great for those tourists who wish a soothing atmosphere. Besides, there are lots of water activities for Kids and Ayurvedic body massage centers, spa centers and Ayurvedic saloons in the offing.

2.Kochi - The Port City. It is known for its heritage monuments, enchanting backwaters, colonial houses, forts, temples and palaces. The churches and spice markets add to the diversity of the city.

3.Backwaters & Houseboats: They are one of the major attractions in Kerala.

Alleppey, Kumarakom, Kollam, Kozhikode, Fort Kochi, Thiruvallam, etc are some of the most popular backwater destinations. These backwaters are famous for their natural beauty and houseboat cruises. These places also have luxury hotels for the tourist who wants a serene atmosphere for a longer time span.

4.Munnar: It is pretty much the Kashmir of the south although very distinct. One of the most popular and most frequented hill stations in the southern part of the subcontinent. Sprawling plantations, cool and fresh air in mountains and endless stretch of greenery is can make anyone spellbound. A must visit for nature lovers and adventure enthusiasts.

5.Wayanad: It is somewhat of a complete tourism package and a must visit for those planning a Kerala Holidays. It is famous for its rich flora and fauna, scenery, spice plantations, lush green landscapes and waterfalls besides diverse wildlife and an interesting history. There are many resorts located near Wayanad which make the exploration easier.

Besides these, the Capital Trivandrum is home to a number of museums, markets, art galleries and eating spots.
