Kerala is described as the land of God in the texts and in the modern world of tourism; it is referred as the God's own country because of the pristine nature of the place. After an analysis from the feedback of the global visitors, it has been found that the state of Kerala, located in the southern part of India, is indeed the excellent abode of enjoyment. You have the fine options to enjoy the green valleys, the hills, the verdant locations and many other pristine spots in Kerala. This wonderful place of God's splendid creation is the excellent hub of the hill stations, sea shores, the wildlife parks and many holy places on the face of the earth. When you go for the Kerala trip, you will feel that this state is indeed blessed by the natural realms that are found in very rare spots in the world.

The pristine nature of Kerala is reflected in the wonderful climate, the spa centers, the beaches, the backwaters, wild sanctuaries, the spa and many more. Kerala tourism is on a high throughout the year because of these wonderful spots leaving the traveler spellbound. One cannot forget the backwater trip of Kerala and when you are on this kind of tour, you will also come across many other elements of nature and these include the cascading waterfalls, the mesmerizing beaches, the houseboats and many more. There is a wonderful design of the houseboats and the bamboo plays a very important part in it. For the decoration aspect, you have got the color carpets and wonderful furniture inside the boats. Celebrating the honeymoon in the mesmerizing backwater destination of Kumarakom is indeed an experience of life. Do not miss the Venice of the east known as Allepy. Cruise is an important feature of backwater trip and you can explore the hidden beauty of Kerala in a cruise.

For the complete taste of the state of Kerala, it will be good if you go for the excellent Kerala tour package. Such types of packages cover all the aspects of Kerala beauty and this also cover Ayurveda and spa. You can go to the exotic hill stations of Annavilasam and Tekkedy apart from celebrating the couple of days in the wonderful beach of Kovalam. This beach is famous for the rejuvenation of the body and mind because there are many ayurveda centers on the beach. You have the good luck to see the beautiful women of India as the other nations on this exotic beach. When you are in Kerala on a tourist holiday, you not only enjoy the exotic honeymoon but also have the opportunity to see some of the old or ancient temples of the place. You have the wonderful temple in Guruvayoor and this is known by the name Gurumayoorappa. You can reach this temple via Trichur and it is believed that the idol inside the temple dates back to 5000 years. Sree Padmanabhaswamy temple of Kerala is the old temple dedicated to Lord Padamba is the richest temple in the world. Going to Shabrimalai is interesting experience and is visited by millions.
