Are you planning a vacation tour with your family and are thinking of ways to satisfy the demands of your each and every family member? There is no need to get confused- the best way is choosing Leh tour as it offers something for everyone and no member of your family will be disappointed after returning from the tour.

Leh tourism has flourished so rapidly that it lures visitors of all age, whether a teenager or a senior citizen. There are various choices for all categories of people, such as adventure tour for youngsters, cultural tour for the seniors and sight seeing for the honeymooners. By taking the Leh tour you will get the benefit of enjoying so many varieties of options at a nominal cost. So what are you waiting for? Hurry up and book your tour that offers the best quality service at budget cost.

As Leh is trekkerâ€™s paradise, adventure lovers can indulge in trekking, mountaineering, camping, white water rafting ice skating, skiing and biking. Leh tourism is also gaining momentum due to its spectacular monasteries and historical monuments for which it is world famous. Shanti Stupa, Alchi Gompas, The Great Leh Palace and Meditation Centre are some of the major attractions that are covered by the tourists while touring Leh. Ladakh festivals are also very popular for its elaborate events followed by cultural, traditional and mask dances performed by the Buddhist Monks. They are a great feast for cultural enthusiasts as they can take full advantage of these colorful performances that are being organized by the Tourism Department in collaboration with the local communities.

A variety of sport events are also organized during this time, such as archery and polo competition and white water rafting expeditions and at the same time visitors are also treated with exhibitions and yak dances. For the honeymoon couples, there are countless spots where they can enjoy peacefully, such as sky reaching mountain ranges, water rushing down from the glacier- a land of mystic beauty set amidst snowcapped mountains and referred to as Himalayan wonderland. Summer is the best season to take a Leh tour as all the adventure sports are conducted during this time and the Ladakh festival too is organized during summer. Accommodation is no problem as there are many luxurious resorts and hotels as well as lodging that will definitely suit your budget and make your tour the most memorable one.
