Article published on July 3rd 2012 | Travel

Royal Tunbridge Wells is the town of Kentish County and is situated in the South East region of England. The town is a home to more than 56,500 people according to the census. The distance from Tunbridge Wells to the city of London is about 53 kilometers (33miles) in NNW by rail and 64 kilometers (40miles) by road. The town is situated at the northern edge of the High Weald. During the Gregorian times, the town of Tunbridge Wells came into being as a spa resort town. A wide number of people from around the country especially traveled to the town of Tunbridge Wells in order to take fresh waters. Queen Victoria was also one of those people who were regular visitors of Tunbridge Wells. Due to the frequent visits of Queen and her interest in the town lead to an addition of a prefix of â€˜Royalâ€™ to its name in 1909. The town got the status of a borough in 1889. An Opera House was opened in the town in 1902. The majority of the income of town is dependent on tourism industry. It was and still remains one of the most popular tourist destinations of UK. The transportation facilities include Tunbridge Wells car/taxi hire services, vans, buses, coaches and trains.

According to the research done by archaeologists and anthropologist of Tunbridge Wells, it was a place with one of the best farmlands around during the Iron Age. The people farmed fields and mined iron-rich rocks in this area. During the excavations in Tunbridge Wells by James Money in 1940, the remains of a defensive hill-fort were uncovered, making it a more historical and significant place in the country. The town is surrounded by villages which include High Brooms in the north, Hawkenbury in the south, and Rusthall in the west. The royal town offers a plethora of attractions and worth visiting places for the interest as well as entertainment of people in the town. Some of the most popular parks and gardens situated in and around the town include Groombridge Place Gardens, Tunbridge Wells Garden Centre, Dunorlan Park, Pashley Manor Gardens, Scotney Castle Gardens, The Hop Farm Family Park, Haysden Country Park and many more. Skipping from once place to another is easy as the Tunbridge Wells taxi hire are available from all major locations and cities of UK.

If you are an international visitor or tourist planning to visit the town of Tunbridge Wells in near future, you can easily hire Tunbridge Wells airport taxi services that travel to and from all major airports and locations across the country. They operate from all five airports of London which include Heathrow, Gatwick, Stansted, Luton and London City airports. The tourists and travelers donâ€™t find any kind of difficulty in getting from once place to another in the town as the ground transportation services in the town offer superior class services. The drivers of these taxis and private cars are local to Reading therefore you donâ€™t need to worry about the hassle of roads and directions. These drivers take you to your desired locations via shortest and most convenient routes. CrossCab is the exclusive and oldest Tunbridge Wells taxi company. They have been providing high class taxi services to the town since many years.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/life-and-entertainment-in-tunbridge-wells.htm - Article Side

Mark Edward - About Author:
Skipping from once place to another is easy as the a Tunbridge Wells taxi hire are available from all major locations and cities of UK. CrossCab is the exclusive and oldest a Tunbridge Wells taxi company.

Article Keywords:
Tunbridge Wells car/taxi hire services, Tunbridge Wells taxi hire, Tunbridge Wells airport taxi, Tunbridge Wells taxi company

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!