Article Side

Life in Lamberhurst by Mark Edward

Article published on May 16th 2012 | Travel

Located at a distance of 16 kilometers in the East of Tunbridge Wells, Lamberhurst is a small village. It is a part of Kent County of England. The village witnesses picturesque landscapes and lush green gardens and farmlands. In the past, the village was known as a place for arms making. The business of arms making later moved to Birmingham. The village was also known as a place for smugglers. Today the village of Lamberhurst produces high quality fruit and wine which is sent across the country. For transportation, people book a taxi in Lamberhurst or hire private vehicles as per requirements for traveling across the country or nearby towns. The villagers of Lamberhurst opt to travel to the Tunbridge Wells which is the largest town nearby.

The village offers a large number of spots having national historical importance and cultural value. There are a wide number of places of natural beauty and leisure facilities found in the village. The places for recreation and amusement can be easily found at the small yet lively village of Lamberhurst. The travel facilities that include private cars, taxis, buses, coaches and trains are available in Lamberhurst to and from London and all other major towns and cities across United Kingdom. For the interest of visitors the village features places that include Scotney Castle Garden. It is a 14th century castle and is rated among the most favorite and admired hotspots of village. The Scotney Castle was built back in 1830s by Edward Hussay. The garden and castle is now owned by the National Trust.

Apart from Scotney Garden and Castle, â€˜The Chequersâ€™ which is a classic old pub from the 15th century is situated on Broadway in Lamberhurst. â€˜The Chequersâ€™ is a traditional inn with an accommodation of 5 bedrooms. Aside from all this, there is Barnfield Oast, which offers an exciting and memorable 10 minutes walk across the fields to the center of Lamberhurst village. In the west of Lamberhurst is the â€˜Owl Houseâ€™ which was built in the 16th Century. Itâ€™s a fantastic recreation spot that offers picturesque gardens which are open for public. For the international travelers and tourists visiting the village, the local cab companies provide the option to book a cab in Lamberhurst prior to arrival at highly economical rates. These companies also provide the options to book vans and buses online for group travelers.

Until the late 1894, the village of Lamberhurst was considered as a part of East Sussex County as well as Kent County because the boundaries of both Counties ran cross Lamberhurst. The village was later declared being a part of Kent County of England. CrossCab is one of the leading online taxi booking companies of UK and the exclusive taxi firm of Lamberhurst. Their taxis in Lamberhurst provide transfer services inside the village as well as outside village to all major locations and airports across the nation. They have been providing comprehensive cab booking solutions to their customers around the world since many years. CrossCab is known as the most economical taxi booking firm of UK.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/life-in-lamberhurst.htm - Article Side

Mark Edward - About Author:
The travel facilities that include private cars, taxis, buses, coaches and trains are available in a Lamberhurst to and from London. CrossCab's a taxis in Lamberhurst provide transfer services inside the village as well as outside village to all major locations and airports across the nation.

Article Keywords:
book a taxi in Lamberhurst, Lamberhurst to and from London, book a cab in Lamberhurst, taxis in Lamberhurst

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!