Article published on April 30th 2012 | Travel

Located in Berkshire County, Mortimer Common which is also known as Mortimer is a village and a civil parish of Stratfield Mortimer. The village of Mortimer is a part of the government of West Berkshire. It is at a distance of approximately 7 miles towards the South-West of Reading. Through the middle of the Mortimer, the Lockram Brook flows which later joins into Burghfield Brook towards the Northeast. The brook of Lockram gives a picturesque view to the village. Apart from the geographical location, the ground transportation facilities in Mortimer include Mortimer car hire, taxi hire, vans, buses and trains.

The large village of Mortimer has its own railway station which is operated by the First Great Western train services. Two trains per hour travel on weekdays and weekends whereas one train travels per hour on Sundays from the Mortimer Rail Station. A train from Mortimer Rail Station takes approximately 11 minutes to reach the big town of Reading and 13 minutes to reach Basingstoke. Traveling from Mortimer to any airport in the UK is easy via private cabs which are available 24 hours a day. Cab services in Mortimer to and from Heathrow, London City, Stansted, Gatwick, Luton and all other major airports of the country are highly efficient and economical as well.

Aside from the transportation facilities via Mortimer airport cab services and trains, the village has all the major facilities of life that include a village hall, surgery, chemist, dentist, NatWest bank, library, post office, fire station, and a police station. In the commercial zone there are high standard shops and restaurants. The village of Mortimer offers amenities such as a gift shop, a travel agency, hardware store, a supermarket, a hair-dresser, newsagents, Chinese take-away, cafÃ©s, an Indian restaurant and not to forget the real estate agents. The village of Mortimer consists of three public houses that include the Victoria Arms, The Horse & Groom and The Turners Arms. Apart from the amenities, the village has four churches.

There are a plenty of hotels and cheap accommodations in and near the village of Mortimer. There are a plenty of attractions for the tourists near to the village. Many travelers and tourists choose to stay at Mortimer in search of economical accommodation and cheap transportation. The places of interest near the village of Mortimer include The Vyne (4 miles from Mortimer), Wellington Country Park (5 miles from Mortimer), Willis Museum (7 miles from Mortimer), Basildon Park (9 miles from Mortimer), Newbury Racecourse (10 miles from Mortimer) and many more. The tourists seek accommodation in Mortimer because the transportation facilities are available at least prices throughout the village.

CrossCab is the exclusive Mortimer taxi booking company. They have been serving the village of Mortimer since many years. CrossCab has a large fleet of vehicles that are serving throughout the nation. Their drivers are licensed, professionally trained and courteous. Their vehicles are regularly maintained, serviced and MOT (Ministry of Transport) tested every six months to ensure passenger safety and comfort.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/life-in-mortimer-common.htm - Article Side

Steven Ralph - About Author:
Cab services in a Mortimer to and from Heathrow, London City, Stansted, Gatwick, Luton and all other major airports of the country are highly efficient and economical as well. CrossCab is the exclusive a Mortimer taxi booking company.

Article Keywords:
Mortimer car hire, Mortimer to and from Heathrow, Mortimer airport cab services, Mortimer taxi booking

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!