Article published on July 16th 2012 | Travel

London is the capital of England. It has been listed in top 5 most visited destinations in the world. However, London is not only a tourist city. Rather, it is one of the most important industrial zones of Europe. Some of the biggest company has been headquartered in this historical British city. It also features some of the finest educational centers like Oxford and Cambridge. A city with rich history and strong taste for art and culture, London has surely many things to offer. Stepping out of the Heathrow airport and trying to reach some particular destination in the city is not difficult.

London taxi service is fast and reliable. London taxi fares are not on the higher side and are quite affordable to bear. It depends on distance travelled. Also, quality of cab hired determines the rate. London taxi fare for limousine hire will be much higher when compared to normal hatchback cars.

Prepaid taxi booths are available within London-Heathrow airport boundary. As a result, passengers coming out of the airport will find it easier to rent a private cab for hotel or some particular location drop. London taxi fares are quite cheap when compared to other parts of the UK. And more options are also available in this city when compared to other English cities. Some of the top car services like Hertz, Flexa, Europcar, London Chauffeur, British car hire, and Thrifty have their outlets available in different corners of the city. Most of them have their prepaid booking counter available at the airport premise. And in this tech savvy era, booking for car hire from these renowned service providers can be done through online also. In fact, booking through telephone can also be done. If booking is done in advance, approx 3-6 weeks, some discounts on London taxi fares can be availed.
