Luxury Accommodation and Excellent Facilities at the Monte da Quinta Club by Michael Reilly

Article published on January 31st 2012 | Travel

The Monte da Quinta Club can offer stunning holidays for singles, couples or families. You will be able to relax and unwind in the beautiful surroundings and enjoy all the great facilities on offer.

Luxury Accommodation

The Monte da Quinta Club can offer high class villas and townhouses for guests. These private and spacious properties are designed with a lovely mix of traditional Portuguese architecture and modern features. This means you can enjoy the beauty of classic style combined with all the modern conveniences that make your life easier.

There are a range of different accommodation sizes on offer from two bedroom townhouses through to large 5 bedroom family villas. Some properties will also come with their own private gardens and swimming pools for the perfect family holiday.

Fun Facilities

There are also plenty of excellent facilities on offer at the Monte da Quinta Club resort. This will ensure you have plenty to do during your stay:

- Fitness Suite - keep up your normal fitness routine during your holiday with the fitness options available at the Monte da Quinta Club. This includes a fully equipped modern gym offering weight training and cardio exercises.

- Pools - many people enjoy relaxing and unwinding around the pool. The beautiful climate of the Algarve is perfecting for swimming and sunbathing. The Monte da Quinta Club resort can offer stunning outdoor swimming pools for those warmer days and also a heated indoor pool for when the weather is cooler.

- Spa - the Monte da Quinta Club spa is a great way to pamper yourself whilst you are on holiday. There are a range of relaxing options on offer from stylish Turkish baths through to rejuvenating beauty treatments.

- Shopping - you can buy all your essential items at the convenient on-site mini supermarket. This means it is just a short walk for you to pick up your groceries and also buy gifts and mementos for your friends and family.

You can also use all of the facilities at the nearby Monte da Quinta Suites site as well. This includes more swimming pool, spa and fitness options. There is also a good kids club that will keep your family entertained for hours so that you can take some time for yourself on your holiday.
