Luxury Hotels in London: Rendering Comfort and Packaged Guided Tours by Jinni

Article published on May 2nd 2012 | Travel

Samuel Johnson had once said, "By seeing London, I have seen as much of life as the world can show." Such is the audacity of this city that every tourist coming here would surely fall in love with it. It has always been one of the most sought-after touristy destinations of Europe. A Europe tour is indeed incomplete without a visit to this histrionic city. Around 20 million visitors visit here annually. It's quite obvious to see a large number of accommodation options as well. There are around 10,000 hotels in the city. The 5 star hotels in London are counted among the best taverns in the world.

Although it's quite impossible to explore all the major attractions in a single day, however, some of the relevant places can still be covered. Initiate yourself at the Westminster Abbey, which is also known as the Collegiate Church of St Peter. It is one of the splendid examples of episcopal architecture in Europe. It's a 12th century church, where coronation of monarchs takes places. The monastery houses a bona fide archive, depicting the glorious English history through the memorials to William Shakespeare, Charles Dickens etc. The last scene of the movie, 'Da Vinci Code' was shot here. The Buckingham Palace is another must-see attraction. The Royal Palace is nestled between two sweeping parks, followed by an elegant boulevard. Pay a visit here and checkout the Queen's Gallery and the Royal Mews. Guided tours are available, touring you a part of the palace's 600-plus rooms. The Throne Room, Grand Staircase & Picture Gallery are some of the top picks. The 5 star hotels in London will surely ease your stay. Check-in at any of the popular tavern & enjoy your tour. As you emerge from the royal courtyard, allow yourself to be embraced the very mascot of London; the Big Ben. Take a one-day guided tour, which would let you explore the city's relevant landmarks. Now visit the city's famous plaza; the Trafalgar Square. Its major highlight is the Nelson Column, guarded by four lions.

St. Paul's Cathedral is another religious attraction, which you can visit. This is one of the most defining landmarks of the City skyline. Keep the London Eye for evening. This is the largest Ferris wheel of Europe, set-up on the banks of the river Thames. It receives around 3.5 million visitors every year. The 25 minute slow oscillation ride is worth-experiencing. Some of the luxury hotels in London offer packaged tours. You can also go for it.
