India is one of the most frequented tourist destinations in the world. It is liked equally by both the free travellers and also by those who wish to delve into the depths of the Indian culture and history in the best possible way by relaxing and feeling every bit of the country.

India has a very rich history and it has left the country with thousands of palaces, forts and monuments. Many of its cities used to be the capitals of the emperors of very large empires. Such cities are dotted with a number of luxury hotels and resorts. Besides this, there are number of tourist destinations that offer incredible natural beauty and they have some of the best Luxury Resorts in India.

From hill stations to deserts, from exquisite beaches to wildlife sanctuaries, there is almost no kind of tourist destination that one will not get a chance to experience on an India Luxury Tour. The high mountains of Himalayas in the north with their chilly winds, snowfalls make way for the arid deserts palaces of Rajasthan in the west. The lush green mountains and hills in the North East, the beaches of the west and southern India and all the places beholding secrets of history, unbelievably rich cultural heritage and tradition.

Here are some of the most prominent places to not to miss on a Luxury holiday in India:

1. Agra: It is one of the first places that are visited by the foreign tourists because of the Taj Mahal. Besides this, it also offers great insight into the life and tradition of the one of the greatest empires of History, the Mughal Empire. Besides the Taj, there is the Old Fort, Fatehpur Sikri, Itmad Ud Daulah, Sikandra: The Tomb of Akbar the great and Chni ka Rauza. It has some of the finest hotels in the country that provide excellent accommodation, food and facilities for the tourists. It is very close to Delhi and easily accessible through rail and air routes.

2. Udaipur: After the Taj, comes Rajasthan which attracts the tourists for its palaces, lakes, temples and culture. Udaipur is located in the inner part of the state but it offers excellent luxury resorts and a complete experience of the rich cultural heritage for the people.

3. Goa: If someone likes beaches, celebration and adventure, Goa is the place. One of the most frequented beach resorts of the world are in Goa.
