Planning your next holiday to Portugal can be a lot of fun and also very confusing. It is always difficult to know what accommodation to choose and where the best parts of Portugal are. If you are considering a visit to this part of the world why not consider Vale do Lobo which has an excellent reputation and has provided many holiday makers with the ideal home away from home during their vacation.

Choice of Accommodation

One of the great benefits which come with choosing the Vale do Lobo resort is the fact that there are different accommodations available. You can decide which types of accommodation are the right options for you based on your requirements and preferences. The accommodation that is available includes:

â€¢ Stunning Villas

â€¢ Apartments

â€¢ Townhouses

Choosing a Villa

Villas are ideal if you are planning on visiting Vale do Lobo with a larger family or with a group of friends. You are able to choose from multiple villas each ideally located providing you with easy access to the beach and retail areas. Many of the villas boast around 6 bedrooms and plenty of bathrooms for everyone. You can find stunning villas with their own private swimming pools, most of which are heated if required.

The additional outdoor areas make enjoying the sun and pleasant evenings a whole lot easier and there is no need to fight over loungers with other holiday makers which is often a problem at large hotels.

Apartments and Townhouses

The apartments and townhouses still have generous sleeping areas, many with three bedrooms and private pools. As you can imagine these apartments and townhouses often come with all the mod cons that you are used to in your own home. You can find excellent television sets, CD players, DVD payers and even UK Freeview television for times when you need to come out of the sun or while you are waiting for your other half to get ready for a night at a local bar or restaurant. The kitchen is also well stocked to enable home dining as and when you choose to stay in.

A Wonderful Resort in Portugal

Vale do Lobo is an excellent choice to make when travelling to Portugal no matter which type of accommodation you choose. Being situated just 20 minutes from the Faro International airport it is easy to get to which makes relaxing into your holiday a breeze. There are many amenities which are available to all the guests such as use of the golf course, a relaxing spa and many boutiques for a spot of retail therapy. With great restaurants and bars on site and being positioned in an area of natural beauty you will not fail in finding you own slice of paradise.
