After marriage, honeymoon is the most special part for newlyweds in their life. India is an ideal place for honeymoon couples as it offers wide variety of honeymoon destinations. Generally, newly married couples look for cool and calm place like hill stations to celebrate their honeymoon.

There are several hill stations in northern part of India for couples to make honeymoon. Himachal Pradesh in northern region has many hill stations for honeymooners. Shimla and Manali are the popular hill stations of Himachal Pradesh. These hill stations are most desired among the honeymooners to celebrate honeymoon in romantic and special way.

Shimla is the most romantic and alluring hill station of Himachal. This hill station is becoming popular among the newly married couples. Especially for nature lovers, it is a heaven on earth. The snow capped mountains, adventure sports, waterfalls; blossoming flowers etc. all add beauty to this hill station. Newlyweds find Shimla an ideal place to express their love for each other.

There are some of the honeymoon destinations in Shimla where the couples can visit and they are The Mall, Jakhu Temple, The Viceregal Lodge, The Ridge and Amusement Park. Moreover, adventure activities such as golfing, trekking and mountain climbing etc. will add more fun and excitement to the honeymoon trip for the couples. Thus, honeymoon in Shimla will truly give an everlasting experience to the newly married couples.

Manali is another beautiful hill station of Himachal. It is a perfect honeymoon destination. This hill station is always thronged by the newlywed couples especially during winter season. This is because the snow covered mountain peaks makes this hill station more beautiful. Skiing and ice-skating are the famous activities which the couples can enjoy together. Apart from this, honeymooners find Manali best place to celebrate their honeymoon.

The top attraction of Manali is the hot water springs. There are many temples too. However, Solang valley and the Rohtang Pass are the two must visit places on your honeymoon trip to Manali.
