Managing Transportation in Calcot Berkshire by Steven Ralph

Article published on June 7th 2012 | Travel

Calcot is located in the Berkshire County of England. It is a suburban area of the great town of Reading and is situated between the Junction No.12 of M4 Motorway and Horncastle. The area of Calcot is also known as Calcot Row. It is ideally located on the north of Tilehurst above the hills and provides great picturesque views to the tourists and visitors around the world. Calcot is the area split between Tilehurst and Holybrook which are the civil parishes of Berkshire. Managing transportation in Calcot is not difficult as there are some ground transportation firms offering superior class taxis in Calcot to and from all major locations of United Kingdom that include cities, towns and villages.

The educational facilities in Calcot are limited to primary level. There are two major schools which include The Calcot Junior School and the Calcot Infant School. These schools offer superior class education and the students who pass primary education from these schools usually move to the great university town of Reading for further education up to the highest standards. Reading being a big town, houses two of the UKâ€™s renowned and reputed universities. The University of Reading and Thames Valley University are the two significant universities situated in the town of Reading. Man students from around the country and the world travel to Reading in search of quality education. The students who wish to travel to Reading for attending their classes can hire a taxi in Calcot at affordable prices.

For leisure and entertainment, Calcot has a large country house named Calcot Park. It is situated in the north eastern side of Calcot. The Calcot Park was converted into a beautiful golf course in the recent past. It also had a building which was converted into residential apartments. There are many worth seeing spots in and around the area of Calcot. The Sonning Lock on the River Thames in Sonning village is at a distance of 6 miles from the area of Calcot. It is a center of attraction for the people of Calcot and is surrounded by cottages, hotels, lodges, inns and a lot more. The Saint Andrews Church, The Mill at Sonning Dinner Theatre and The Beale Park are some of the featured attractions in and around the Calcot. The ground transportation companies offer Calcot cab reservation online or via call.

CrossCab is one of the leading online cab booking firms of United Kingdom. They have been providing comprehensive transportation services around the UK and are known as the most renowned and reputed providers of online taxi booking services in the country since many years. CrossCab owns a large fleet of taxis that provide specialized transfer services in Calcot to and from Luton airport, London City, Heathrow, Gatwick, Stansted and all other major airports of the United Kingdom. The drivers of CrossCab are fully vetted, licensed and professionally trained. They are courteous and make their passengers feel extremely comfortable and privileged. Their vehicles are MOT (Ministry or Transport) tested every six months in order to ensure your safety and comfort.
