Apart from various other beautiful destinations in India, it is also a great place for wild life lovers. A large number of people from different corners of the world visit India to observe the wild life very closely. Though there are various national parks in India but Jim Corbett National Park has its own specialties and features. Jim Corbett National Park is just 262 kms from the capital of India, Delhi. Most of the people of Delhi use to visit this national park frequently. A visit of Corbett offers you the opportunity to see some rare species of birds and animals. Apart from Corbett tour, tourists also get the opportunity to visit some important destinations like Corbett Museum, Garjia Temple and the most interesting fun nature walk along the river Kosi.

Most of the tourists go for Delhi Corbett Tour. Tourists start from Delhi and first they enjoy the sight seeing of Old Delhi like visiting:

Raj Ghat: where the cremation of Mahatma Gandhi was performed.

Jama Masjid: This is famous as a largest mosque in India.

Red Fort: most opulent fort of ancient times and many other places. Tourists can also enjoy a ride of cycle rickshaw from Jama Masjid to Chandni Chowk.

After visiting old Delhi, tourists get the opportunity to enjoy the tour of extensive sight seeing of New Delhi. Tourists can enjoy the visit of Humayunâ€™s Tomb, famous Qutub Minar, a visit to Parliament house, lotus temple, residence of president, India Gate and many other places.

After finishing the sight seeing of Delhi in prescribed time, then the tourists are moved towards Corbett national park. At Corbett, you have to check in at any of the famous Jungle Resort. Then as per schedule, you can explore the Corbett national park with the help of different safaris as per your suitability. Then back to Delhi as per schedule.

Agra is very near to Delhi and tourists have a great desire to go for Agra tour as Taj Mahal is one of the most important attractions of Agra. If you have scarcity of time then you can avail Delhi Agra Same Day Tour. Agra is just 203 kms from Delhi and you can easily visit Agra and come back to Delhi in the same day. Agra trip offers you the opportunity to witness the wonder of the world. You can also visit a marble factory, Sikandra which is the magnificent tomb of Akbar and some other places. After that, come back to Delhi.
