After high school, like everyone, all close buddies who were â€˜all for one for allâ€™ had to split ways. This happened because after passing school days, everyone starts getting seats for graduation in different areas. Since, phone calls, social network sites were not enough. All decide to catch up at least once in six months and decide to meet up somewhere new and spend time in the wilderness.

What better to opt for such a trip than the dodge caravan? More so, as you have one but that needs some reinforcement to be done. Now you have fixed the date and confirmed presence of everyone. Since the journey is going to be far and need to cover miles, a thorough check of the dodge caravan parts becomes essential.

First and foremost thing to do is to check the condition of tires. Since they need to last long, they need to be tough for rocky and rough roads or where there are none. You also need backup spare tire too. Since, you are on your maiden voyage to the unknown place; you do not want to get lost. Do roll in paper map of the place that you are heading to. Significantly, you will require dodge caravan accessories in the form of GPS being installed. So, even if your paper map is lost, you have a permanent back-up. Now you are sure that you will not be lost, so now you need to worry about the interior of the caravan. For this, you need to upgrade the music system and iPod connector too. Since thereâ€™s going to lot of booze you need to have dodge caravan accessories that can help to keep the bottles and a carpet to keep off all the snacks from messing up the floor.
