Promenade which is usually abbreviated as prom is one of the biggest and most exciting days during anyone's high school life. It is known as the most memorable social event of life according to majority of people. It is all about gowns and tuxedos and dancing the night away under the glitter of colorful lights. There is a great deal of expectations and hopes associated with this special day and the students start making huge plans and preparations for this day, months earlier. They gather funds and save money to spend this special day in the most special way. The involvement and support of parents and teachers is equally there for the prom day celebrations. Not only this, the students also plan to get to the event place in a special way. They especially hire prom limousines for arriving at the event place in style. The limousine hire companies around the world offer special prom limo packages which are designed to fit the pockets of these passionate teens.

The students arrive at the event arena in the form of couples and conduct this party in the honor of the senior most high school students who are about to leave. Prom party is in fact a farewell for the students completing their high school studies and aiming forward for college organized by the second most senior grade of a high school. The prom night is not only about fun, it is about the everlasting moments spent with high school fellows. It is about the moments that will make a big difference in their future lives. The ground transportation companies that offer special prom limo deals also have special limousines which are designed for prom hires. Some of the companies even have limousines painted in pink color in order to make it more prominent and colorful for the students. Arriving in a chauffeured pink limousine makes them the talk of town.

The chauffeured prom limo cost quite much therefore majority of the students hire stretched sedans or stretched SUVs and travel in a group of couples so that they have to pay less by equally sharing the total fare. There are many different types of limousines which are hired for prom parties by students. The most economical of all is a sedan limousine. A sedan is best choice for a couple with the maximum comfortable seating capacity of 3 passengers excluding the chauffeur. They are best choice if you wish to travel to the location alone with your partner. The most popular sedan limousines include Mercedes Benz S Class, BMW 7 Series and Lincoln Town Car L Series. Aside from the economical sedans, those who are a small group of around 3 to 4 couples, hire SUV limousines. They are the sport utility vehicles with enough room and seating capacity ideal for small groups. Stretched limousines which are the most expensive have the capacity to accommodate up to 7 couples.

Bridge Limousine is the oldest and most reputed online limo hire company of United States based out of New Jersey. They offer special prom limo rates which are incomparable and equally challengeable. They have a virtual fleet of latest models of all the luxury limousines which include sedans, SUVs, stretched limos (sedan/SUV), luxury vans and limousine party buses.
