Planning your wedding in a Positano villa by Jack Selvon

Article published on June 25th 2012 | Travel

The region of Positano is a small commune known for its homely villas, beautiful beaches and picture perfect landscapes. A wedding is the most important part of your life and if you plan to have it in a wedding villa in Italy, consider Positano and Amalfi. The villas here are perfect for a small crowd and intimate celebrations like a wedding. Sea food is also plenty and full. Villas in Positano come in different sizes and at different prices. Positano has so much to offer. You can shop at the local markets, walk by the marina and sit by the beach and enjoy the sun. The summer here is the best time to have your well planned wedding. A villa will include certain basic amenities that you should ask for like central air conditioning and heating, dishwasher, coffeemaker, crockery and linen. You can rent your villa for as long as you like in Positano with usually a minimum of three room nights.

Wedding parties

When you are having your wedding party, discuss it with the agent. Tell them your requirements so that they can offer you the right wedding villas in Italy. You will need catering, additional accommodation for guests and other landscaping requirements. You will need to rent out the entire villa positano for you and your guests so that you have privacy on your wedding day. Besides the party ensure you get in a city tour either by sea or on foot. You will love the coastal regions of Positano. The adjoining areas of Italy are beautiful too and are worth a look at. Take a boat ride and visit the islands close to Positano. You will also marvel at the food they have to offer.

Online bookings

When you are ready to book, try online websites that will give you complete details of all the Positano villas. The villas in Positano will offer you the best deals available. You will get good offers in the summer. A wedding in Italy means loads of planning for you and your guests so make sure you book well in advance so that the staff of the villa has enough time to prepare for your wedding. Wedding villa Italy will render you guests and you speechless and make some beautiful memories for you and your partner.

Other activities

Besides the occasional tours, visit Amalfi for a few days. You will be able to rent and apartment and sit by the balcony sipping wine and watching the sunset. The villas there are great for a honeymoon and give you complete privacy from the crowds of the summer. So when you are honeymooning in the coastal region of Italy, make sure you make it as memorable for your partner as possible.
