Article published on November 25th 2011 | Travel

If a tour can give you best experience of cultural and heritage tourism in India then it is none other than golden triangle tour. Golden triangle covering Delhi, Agra and Jaipur is one of the most sought after tourist circuits through northern India. It is a cultural journey and perfectly introduces the real charm of incredible India. There are many interesting cultural and heritage sites in this route that attract tourists. On this tour tourists have a wonderful opportunity to see some of the best forts, monuments and cultural & historical sites of India. Each destination has its own charm and has lots to offer its visitors. Also there are excellent accommodation facilities available at the each destination of this cultural journey in northern India.

The first destination of fabled golden triangle journey in India is Delhi, the capital city of India. Delhi is itself a prominent tourist place with hordes of tourist attractions. Red Fort, Qutub Minar and Humayunâ€™s Tomb are UNESCO world heritage sites and among most sought after sites in the city. India Gate (an imposing war memorial structure with lush gardens in surrounding), Lodhi Gardens, President House, Parliament House, Rajghat, Jama Masjid, Lotus Temple, Birla Temple, Akshardham Temple, National Museum and Connaught Place are other popular tourist sites in Delhi.

The next destination of golden triangle is generally Agra â€“ the City of Taj Mahal. Agra is an important historical city of India. It is located on the banks of the Yamuna River in the northern Indian state of Uttar Pradesh. It is famous for magnificent moments and heritage sites. Taj Mahal (one of the Seven Wonders of the World) is a UNESCO world heritage site in the city. It is the main attraction for tourists and appeals tourists from all over the world thorough out the year. Agra Fort and Fatehpur Sikri are other UNESCO world heritage sties which attract tourists. Itmad-Ud-Daullah Tomb (the Baby Taj or Little Taj Mahal), Chini-Ka-Rauza, Local Bazaars, Sikandara Akbarâ€™s Tomb, Dayal Bagh, etc are also popular sites to visit on Agra tour.

The next destination of golden triangle tour is Jaipur but you can enhance the charm of this journey by adding Ranthambore National Park in your itinerary. Located between Agra and Jaipur, the Ranthambore National Park is one of the most sought after Indian wildlife sanctuaries. It is famous for royal Bengal tigers.

Famed as the Pink City of India, Jaipur is a much sought after Indian tourist destination. It is the capital and largest city of Rajasthan state. It is famous for forts, palaces, temples and museums. Amber Fort, Jal Mahal, Hawa Mahal, Jantar Mantar, City Palace and Birla Temple are key tourist sites for tourism in Jaipur.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/popular-sites-to-see-during-golden-triangle-tour-in-india.htm - Article Side

Kuldeep123 - About Author:

Kuldeep Singh is a prominent writer primarily focusing on travel and tourism related topics. He has written many articles on various topics such as a Golden Triangle Tour, India tourism, Rajasthan tour, India city guide, etc. Currently he is rendering his services to a reputable a Indian Wildlife Sanctuares.

Article Keywords:
Golden Triangle Tour, Indian Wildlife Sanctuares

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!