Premium Hotels at Beachfront in Miami by Chris Adam

Article published on January 4th 2012 | Travel

The few things that make Miami the most loved destination among both celebrities and common people are vibrant nightlife, the sunshine and magnificent beaches. To add to these natural beauties come the artificial beauties like the fashion shops, hotels, museums. So many tourists come to the beaches throughout the year. The Miami hotels beachfront provides maximum ease, breathtaking aquatic views and simple modes of transport to other attractions.

The Delano is an Art-Deco designed building in the miami hotels beachfront. Created somewhere in the mid 90-s, it combines in itself ultra-fashionable design with stylish luxurious furniture. This hotel is the main architect behind the revival of glory of the South Beach area. From the larger pool which is surrounded by the cabana bar, provisions for poolside dining amenities, the beach is just few distances apart. There is a mixture of both white soberness and post suites inside it. There are two restaurants and three bars to keep your appetite happy all the time. You will find beach beds with shades, aquatic toys to double your fun quotient.

The Raleigh is another famous Miami hotels beachfront. This Art-Deco fashioned building was built in 1940 and is located at the centre of the Miami Beach. It has got a posh poolside cabana bar named the Oasis which regularly holds the Sunday night South Beach party. If you wish for a secluded yet comfortable vacation, then this is the best location for you..

The Standard is another hotel in secluded miami hotels beachfront with boutique and spa facilities to enhance its glory. The best part of this hotel is its comparatively low price tag. This will make your vacation enjoyable and tension-free. The support staff is extremely warm just like the interiors of this hotel made of white fabricated wood.
