Article Side

Relax yourself at Dar es Salaam by Annie Smith

Article published on November 28th 2011 | Travel

Dar es Salaam is the richest and largest metropolis of Tanzania, East Africa. The city is situated on a monolithic natural harbor on the Eastern Indian Ocean coast of Africa. The Name Dar es Salaam is Arabic, which in English language means â€˜harbor of peaceâ€™.

Get a feel of urbanite as well as country holiday here at Dar es Salaam. Beauty of the cities surroundings can enchant anybody with itâ€™s unlike aura. Presence of African Tanzanians, Arabic South Asian communities, British as well as German expatriates, Catholics, Lutherans and Muslims makes Dar es Salaam a multicultural harmonious city. Well planned infrastructure, picturesque harbors, chaotic markets, beaches and high end lifestyle of the people makes this city a perfect place to dig into during your next holiday trip. Presence of pristine beaches makes Dar es Salaam a perfect place to indulge into water sports.

Dar es Salaam is Tanzania's most authoritative city for both business and governmental activities. Cuddles along the natural harbor on the Indian Ocean, the metropolis makes your trip even more perfect. You can also spend a day or two at Bagamoyo, Bongoyo and Mbudja Islands which are located nearby the cities territory. Relish a glass of drink while experiencing a lively music scene here. The best part of the music here is live dance bands such as Kilimanjaro, Twanga Pepeta and FM Academia, which will leave you flattered with its melodious cords. Flight to Dar es Salaam can take you on a trip that you will treasure for a life time.

Increasing importance of tourism, has given boost to the number of international restaurants and hotels here. And due to the diverse and rich culture at Dar es Salaam, the city now offers a rich and internationalized diversity of cuisine to its global visitors. From traditional Tanzanian barbecue and Zanzibari food to Thai, you would get to taste everything.

While exploring the city, donâ€™t forget to visit National Museum, Makumbusho Village Museum, Askari Monument, Zoological Gardens, Karimjee Hall and Azania Front Lutheran Church which has to be on the must visit list of the visitors. Shopping is another important thing to do in this metropolis. So what are you waiting for? Plan up your trip and fill up your bags with everything for which the city is famous for.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/relax-yourself-at-dar-es-salaam.htm - Article Side

Annie Smith - About Author:
Annie is an expert adviser for traveling having years of experience in the Travel industries. Get more offers for the best and numerous a flight tickets for Dar es Salaam , cheap flights to Dar es Salaam , book your ticket in advance so you will not face any problem at the last moment for your a Flight to Dar es Salaam.

Article Keywords:
Dar es Salaam flights, cheap flights to Dar es Salaam, flights to Dar es Salaam, cheap Dar es Salaam flight, flight to Dar es Salaam, Dar es Salaam flight, cheap flight to Dar es Salaam

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!