

Article Side

Royal Tunbridge Wells - Travel & Leisure by Mark Edward

Article published on May 9th 2012 | Travel

Royal Tunbridge Wells is a popular and the only spa town situated in the Kent County in South East of England. The town is full of rich culture and traditions from the past. The history of Tunbridge Wells goes 400 years back. The town of Royal Tunbridge Wells holds a diverse culture. Millions of tourists visit the royal town every year. Tunbridge Wells offers a wide range of facilities of life. The town offers superior class ground transportation services that include Tunbridge car hire, taxi hire, vans, buses, coaches and trains. There is a railway station at a distance of 6.4 kilometers from Tunbridge Wells. This railway station is named as Tonbridge Railway Station. The Southeastern Railways (SER) is the provider of train services at this rail station. They travel to all major cities and towns of United Kingdom.

Aside from the ground transportation facilities, there are several places of shopping. The most popular of all shopping malls in Tunbridge Wells includes the Royal Victoria Place shopping mall (which was inaugurated by Diana, the princess of Wales). There are many other shopping places in Tunbridge Wells that offer a unique experience. The Pantiles, The old High Street, Chapel Place, Vale Road, Calverley Road, Mount Pleasant, Mount Ephraim, Camden Road, Monson Road, Cranbrook and the surrounding villages are some of the best shopping places in the large town. Many shopping lovers come from various places around the country for shopping in Tunbridge Wells. There are many special transfer services that work in Tunbridge to and from London and all other major locations across the country for ease and convenience of shopping enthusiasts.

Aside from the shopping facilities at Tunbridge Wells, there are many places of international and national importance that are worth visiting for anyone. The town houses a large number of picturesque and lush green gardens that include Sissinghurst Castle Garden which is a treat to visit for all. Besides gardens, there are other must see places in Tunbridge Wells that include seven wonders of the weald, stately homes, castles, churches, vineyards, historic Pantiles and chalybeate spring that mark the beginning of the royal town as a visitor destination. The town also offers its tourists a wide number of outdoor activities that include walking, sailing, mountain biking, climbing and many more. Tunbridge cab booking services can be located online as well as locally. If you are new to Tunbridge Wells, you need not to worry about roads and directions as the majority of cab drivers in Tunbridge are local to the area and can take you to your destination via shortest route in minimum time.

CrossCab is one of the UK's leading online taxi booking companies. They specialize in all kinds of airport transfer services. They provide specialized airport transfer services in Tunbridge to and from Gatwick, Heathrow, London City, Stansted, Luton and all other major airports of the United Kingdom. Their drivers are licensed, vetted and professionally trained. Their vehicles are regularly maintained and MOT tested every six months for the safety and comfort of their passengers. The company offers the most competitive fares in the Royal Tunbridge Wells.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/royal-tunbridge-wells-travel-leisure.htm> - Article Side

Mark Edward - About Author:

There are many special transfer services that work in a Tunbridge to and from London. They provide specialized airport transfer services in a Tunbridge to and from Gatwick.

Article Keywords:

Tunbridge car hire, Tunbridge to and from London, Tunbridge cab booking, Tunbridge to and from Gatwick

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!