Article published on May 7th 2012 | Travel

There are tour operators and travel agents in India who organize India tours for tourists from all parts of the world who havenâ€™t seen this beautiful mystical land. Tourists who visit India want to return back to experience this fascinating country which is a land of living museums.

Touring North India with Affordable Packages

Travel agents organize exciting India tour packages for different regions of the country. You can find exclusive cultural tour packages which reveal the splendid treasures of this nation. A cultural heritage tour to North India will take over a fortnight.

The tour will kick off from Delhi where there are numerous historical monuments in Old and New Delhi. You can see the Raj Ghat- Mahatma Gandhiâ€™s cremation site, Indiaâ€™s biggest mosque- the Jama Masjid and the splendid Red Fort in Old Delhi. Chandni Chowk is the 400-year old market place. In New Delhi there are many monuments including the Parliament House and the Rashtrapati Bhavan.

India tours will then take you to the city of Jaipur which has a blend of impressive Mughal and attractive Rajasthani architecture. The next stop is Agra, famous for the Taj Mahal. A train journey will take you to Jhansi and then by road to Orchha, a medieval city famous for its temples and palaces. Khajuraho is famous for its legendary temples. Fly to Varanasi and visit Sarnath where Buddha delivered his first great sermon.

South India Tour Packages

India tour packages include exciting and affordable packages to the South Indian States. You can also avail of weekend tours to Kerala or honeymoon packages to the hill stations of Ooty or Kodaikanal in Tamilnadu.

Chennai, the capital of Tamilnadu is famous for the Marina Beach, the worldâ€™s second longest beach. Mahabalipuram which is 60kms away from the city is steeped in history with numerous rock-cut temples. Kanchipuram, a small town, besides being famous for its temples is popular for its silk saris. Pondicherry is a beautiful place where the French culture is still seen. A galore of temples in Tanjore, Trichy, Karaikudi and Madurai will reveal the history and culture of Tamilnadu. Your South India Tours will terminate in Kanyakumari at the tip of South India.

Kerala Tourism Attracting World Tourists

The State of Kerala is also referred to as â€˜Godâ€™s own Countryâ€™. What makes Kerala tourism popu that the State has everything you want, to have a relaxed, rejuvenating holiday. Whether it is the clean sands of Kovalam, the wildlife in Thekkady, the cardamom and pepper plantations in Munnar, the serene houseboat cruises in Alleppey or an Ayurvedic tour package, Kerala has it all.

Kerala Tourism packages are extremely popular with the serene landscapes of natural beauty coupled with numerous backwaters and wildlife sanctuaries. The exotic backwaters of Kumarakom and Alleypey are great attractions. Life in Kerala is not fast paced which is why it is ideal for shedding your tensions. You can relax in one of the Ayurvedic spas and invigorate yourself.
