If you love to shop, a trip to Liverpool should be on your list of places to visit. One of the best places to shop in all of Europe, this city, located on the East coast of England, has many popular shopping centres. Youâ€™ll find a great mix of independent retailers and second-hand shops as well as all your high street favourites.

Liverpool ONE, a shopping centre in the heart of the city, has more than 160 stores and restaurants, as well as a large cinema. This outdoor shopping destination is sure to please any seasoned shopper, as it has a wide range of shops, including John Lewis, Adidas, Topshop, American Apparel, Nike and Monsoon. Stop by one of the 37 eateries for some much-needed fuel to keep you going while you browse the latest styles.

Metquarter, an upscale shopping centre also located in the city centre, has a host of luxury brands, including Diesel, Hugo Boss, DKNY Jeans, Jo Malone, MAC and A|X Armani Exchange. A quieter option to other Liverpool shopping hotspots, Metquarter can be a more relaxing experience for shoppers. However, it does cater to those with more money to spend, so keep that in mind. If youâ€™ve got cash on hand or simply want to window shop, youâ€™ll be happy shopping at Metquarter.

Cavern Walks, located on Matthew Street, will impress those looking to shop upmarket independent retailers. Designer brands include Vivienne Westwood, celebrity favourite Cricket, Kids Cavern, Boudette, Boudoir Boutique and Christopher James. This boutique arcade has two restaurants, a nail salon and a hair boutique as well. And if you need to break for a refreshing drink, visit the nearby Cavern Club, where The Beatles played in their early days.

Grand Central, located in an old Victorian building on Renshaw Street, has more unique shops on offer. Youâ€™ll find second-hand, vintage and independent clothes shops scattered across three floors in this impressive building, a former Methodist church. You can shop for handmade clothes and jewellery, knick-knacks, alternative styles and unique, vintage items. If you donâ€™t mind scrolling through the racks and have time to spare, youâ€™ll find some great deals at Grand Central.

Since it's such a large and diverse city, there are a range of accommodation options available for you during your stay. You can find Liverpool hotels that, despite the affordable price tag, are situated close to the city centre for your convenience. These centrally-located hotels make a great base for your shopping excursions in Liverpool.
