Siena is a wonderful city of Tuscany, Italy. Italy is known for its exotic locales and is notorious for its romantic atmosphere. Siena is one among those. For honeymooners, couples this is heaven on earth. If you think something is missing between you and your partner, just visit this place. You will automatically find the lost charm of your relationship.

Step into the middle ages with a visit to Siena. Its magnificent Cathedral, built in the 1200s, is a marvel of marble floor and astonishing art works. You would love to spend a day watching on the townâ€™s sloping red brick Piazza Del Campo, a UNESCO Designated World Heritage Site and a house of dramatic Gothic City Hall, the Gaia Fountain and the chapel of the Virgin. Moving to Siena isnâ€™t much difficult since it is connected with all the neighboring towns and cities via trains and bus routes.

Siena is said to have been founded by Senius, son of Remus, one of the two legendary founders of Rome. Sienaâ€™s emblem is the she-wolf who suckled Remus and Romulus. Many such statues are found through out the city. This city was rebuilt during the rule of Council of Nine, a quasi democratic group from 1287 to 1355. The fan-like Brick pavement represents the council and symbolizes the Madonnaâ€™s Clock which sheltered Siena.

This was all about the Siena city. Now since you have arrive there, you would certainly look for accommodation in Sienna. There are plenty of hotels and apartments out there to choose, providing all levels of services. From the Grand Continental to sleeping in a nunnery you can find one to fit just about any budget.

The whole city has well developed transportation infrastructure and one can easily move around easily. Apart from the historical monuments that take you to the medieval ages, the city has some very exciting cuisines to serves. Apart from the continental foodies, you would also love the ethnic pizzas, pasta sea food. These are easily available at all hotels and restaurants in Sienna. And if you are visiting there in summers, you can be the part of famous Palio horse race.

Hotels arenâ€™t the only Siena accommodation option that is available to you. But there are several other options as well like the villas and private apartments lending the couple more privacy with their stay. These private apartments are ideal for newly wed couples and honeymooners. And if you want your wedding to be organized here in this beautiful city, you can have the villas in Siena where the whole ceremony can be organized just like it would have been done in your home.

Now the major question that comes to mind is how to find the right Siena accommodation. No matter you have selected this beautiful place to be the part of some lovely moments of your life but finding the right accommodation still remains on to-do list. I would personally suggest some hotel directories or tour guides that can help you explore your options.
