For many people, a trip to London will be the trip of a lifetime and in order to ensure that memories of the visit are all good ones, the company endeavours to provide the best-quality, most affordable accommodation possible. Any of its hotels are suitable for all manner of traveller, from businessmen to families.

All rooms - ranging from Deluxe Single to Club Double - combine modern amenities including flat-screen televisions and tea and coffee facilities with classic, stylish designs and include free Wi-Fi broadband so guests can stay connected to colleagues, contacts, friends and family. An English or continental complimentary breakfast is also included every morning to get the day started. The company's priority is its guests' comfort and satisfaction, and its highly-trained and multi-lingual staff are capable of assisting with any query, problem or complaint.

In addition to hotels located around the West End, the company also manages several Hyde Park hotels, situated in order to place visitors as close as possible to the hustle and bustle of the city. Theatre fans will love the West End, shopping fans will adore Oxford Street, Piccadilly Circus and Mayfair, and further afield are attractions such as Trafalgar Square, the British and Natural History Museums and the London Eye, all of which are easily accessible by walking or taking the Underground.

For those who prefer to take a few minutes to chill out and collect themselves after a hectic day of racing around the city, Hyde Park and Kensington Gardens are also close by. There are also a number of London Paddington hotels available for visitors who intend to use the travel links that Paddington Station provides around the country, including Heathrow Airport.

Reservations are easily made for one of the company's hotels via its clear, easy-to-navigate website, where it advertises a lowest-price guarantee - if guests can find a cheaper deal, the company will offer the room for that rate plus a 10% discount. Frequent business travellers can also set up a corporate account which entitles them to several benefits unavailable to one-off customers, including early check-in and late check-out, complimentary fruit and special corporate rates.

Whatever you want to get out of your trip to London, the Shaftesbury Hotels customer satisfaction-led policy will ensure that you never need to worry about your accommodation. Whether you need a place to crash overnight for your flight home or a base for a longer stay while you explore the history and culture of the city, the company's Paddington and Hyde Park hotels make comfortable, reasonably-priced options.
