South India â€“ the Complete Experience

By Peter Jason

Article published on May 24th 2012 | Travel

A South India tour can include visits to many destinations. All of these will give you a different and rich cultural experience.

Kerala, situated in the south west of India, offers a variety of sights, sounds and activities for every tourist. Kerala Holidays are very popular among tourists who are just visiting the state to experience its beauty or among honeymooners who want to rekindle their romance in one of the most beautiful parts of India. A Kerala Honeymoon offers couples breathtaking scenery, beautiful beaches, pristine waters and the perfect setting to make romance blossom.

For those who love the water, Kerala backwaters offer a great option. These backwaters cover around 900 kms of the state and you can enjoy the beautiful sights while you take a boat ride on the backwaters of Kerala. A great way to enjoy the backwaters is on houseboats which are a famous attraction. You can enjoy excellent food, great accommodation and fantastic comfort on these houseboats, in addition to the great scenery that surrounds you. Tour operators in Kerala have various attractive packages available for you to enjoy this great experience and a reasonable cost. Alleppey Tourism is very famous for its houseboats that attract many tourists every year.

Another very famous attraction in the state of Kerala is its beautiful hill stations. These hill stations are particularly beautiful in the monsoon months of June to September. Munnar, situated in the west of Kerala, is a very popular destination. A Munnar Tour is complete with sprawling tea plantations, exotic flora and fauna, gorgeous mountains and valleys and excellent climate with temperatures that never go above 250C.

Kodagu, popularly known as Coorg, is another jewel in Keralaâ€™s crown. A Coorg Tour will take you to the beautiful coffee plantations famous in the area. Coorg has rich wildlife and is famous for its wildlife sanctuaries and the Nagarhole National Park.

The city of Cochin, now Kochi, is the largest city in Kerala. For those who like to visit the city, a Cochin Tour is a great idea. The city is known for its tourist boats that provide transport for its many tourists.

The city of Bangalore, situated in the state of Karnataka is also a great tourist attraction for the city lover. Bangalore Tourism has been flourishing for years among Indian and foreign tourists. Bangalore is also the IT hub of India and a rapidly growing city.

The state of Tamil Nadu offers us the hill station of Ooty. This amazing destination is the capital of the Nilgiri district, and famous for its tea plantations and breathtaking scenery. Ooty tourism has flourished for years and the hill station continues to be a well known destination.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/south-india-the-complete-experience.htm - Article Side

Peter Jason - About Author:
Kerala holiday mart can make your a Chennai tourism memorable with its customized and budget friendly holiday packages. To plan your a Mysore Tourism vacation, visit here.

Article Keywords:
South India Tour, Kerala Holidays, Kerala Honeymoon, Munnar Tour, Tour Operators in Kerala

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!