Article published on December 24th 2011 | Travel

India is a mystic land and the fact remains that the tour is incomplete without visiting the everlasting monument of love known as taj mahal standing tall in the heritage city of Agra. There is no doubt about the fact this is the mausoleum with a splendid and heavenly beauty standing tall on the face of the earth. This monument of global importance was built by the 5th emperor of Mughal dynasty named shah Jahan in honor of her beloved wife mumtaz mahal who was very beautiful queen. She died after giving birth to the 14th child. The emperor was put to rest later in this monument by the side of his beloved wife. Millions of tourists do not leave this country without making the Taj Mahal India trip.

Taj mahal India is a beautiful structure of marble of high level of craftsmanship and is surrounded by grey haze. During the daytime, it looks like the glorious queen sitting on the throne and it looks like stunning faÃ§ade on clear pool. During the time of the sunset, it turns into purple wonder. During the full moon nights, it bubbles with beauty. The sky becomes the royal cloak with the thousands of stars as the celestial crown on the top of the monument. Indeed this sight of the Tajmahal India is really a wonderful experience and cannot be described in words. This monument of love refreshes the mind and is an inspiration for the broken heart nit to lose hope in any case. By having the glimpse at this world class monument, you get a new energy and strength and develop a faith that true love is everlasting and it cannot die. When you step inside the monument of love, it reminds you of the deposed king who spent last years of his life lonely and heartbroken with a gaze at this majestic monument. You can visit this monument by going through some good Taj mahal tour packages. It is indeed a splendid experience to move inside the Taj mahal. You get an aura and a feel and will remember those 20000 craftsmen who were responsible for the construction of this monument under the guidance of an expert chief architect.

The walls of Taj Mahal India have the intricate carvings. There are ancient calligraphies on the walls and these reflect precision. Those wonderful verses of the holy book of Muslims called Koran really reflect the precision and skill of calligraphy during that time. Taj mahal is a wonder that has been described by some of the greatest scholars of history for its beauty and majesty. It is said that the emperor gave the orders to chop down the hands of the workers who made it so that none of this sort will be made on the face of the earth again. This is really a monument of glory on the sands of time. Come to visit the splendid Taj alongwith your beautiful wife and promise her something like this.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/taj-mahal-and-everlasting-glory-can-never-fade.htm - Article Side

Shraddha Singh - About Author:

Shraddha Singh is Indian author and travel expert. This article is based on her experience about â€˜a Tajmahal Indiaâ€™ with interesting information about â€˜a Tajmahal Tour Packagesâ€™.

Article Keywords:
taj mahal history, the taj mahal india, taj mahal visit, taj mahal india tours

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!