For many, summer season can be one of the most awaited seasons. With its arrival, many travelling enthusiasts make plans with their family members to take up a vacation abroad. The fact remains true that we all need a break from our tedious lives and what can be better than going on a memorable holiday with your flesh and blood? Why not spend your time this summer in Delhi? It is simply irresistible and it creates a centre of attention for several local and international travellers who visit Delhi from all over the world. Regarded as the capital of India, Delhi can be clearly categorized into two parts: Old Delhi and New Delhi.

Many seek Delhi holidays to explore the best of what Delhi has to offer. If we throw light on the history of Delhi, you would get acquainted with the fact that the city has gone through a plethora of ups and downs when it was under the influence of the Mughals. It served as the capital for most of the empires that were in reign for a very long time. The Mughals erected a huge number of monuments and forts to enhance the beauty of Delhi and the legacy still has been enduring since ages. When the Mughal kingdom saw an end, the British took control over Delhi.

If you take a stroll in Old Delhi, you would come across many monuments whereas New Delhi is jammed with hotels, bars, markets and restaurants. It would not be wrong to mention that many people from other states may consider Delhi as a land of opportunities in which they have migrated in huge numbers. It is a multicultural city and has seen mass evolution.

Delhi is located on the banks of Yamuna River and is the third most densely inhabited cities of India. You can get in touch with several travel agencies dealing with cheap flights to Delhi. Taking your budget constraint into consideration, you can get in touch with a travel agent that offers an economical deal on Delhi flights from London.

As soon as you touch down in Delhi, you would have so much to be covered in the city. There are a number of popular tourist attractions that act as a crowd puller. You can begin your first day by paying a visit to Red Fort. It is one of the major highlights that every tourist prefers catching sight of. You can then head to Humanyunâ€™s Tomb, Qutub Minar, Akshardham Temple, Jantar Mantar, Jama Masjid and the list is endless.
