London City airport is one of the five major airports of London and is ranked among the most popular airports in London for business travels. Majority of the businessmen prefer London City airport as their medium of transfer to different locations especially for arriving in London, it is considered as the best choice. It is the airport which is located at the minimum distance from the Central London and is therefore considered as the foremost priority for most of the people. Getting to a hotel or a private residence from the London City airport requires minimum time and therefore is greatly convenient for all kinds of passengers. Due to its nearness and close proximity to the London docklands and Canary Wharf, consisting of twin centers of Londonâ€™s financial activities, London City Airport is a preferred landing place for the business class.

Aside from being at a highly prominent and good location, the London City Airport offers one of the best transportation facilities to its passengers. Car hire at London City airport is not a hassle at all because all the UKâ€™s renowned car hire companies including CrossCab, National Car, Hertz, Europcar, Sixt, Budget etc. provide services at the London City Airport. These companies provide budget friendly car hire services including chauffeured cars as well as self driven cars depending on your requirements. If you are planning to visit the city of London for a short stay business trip, it would be the best option for you to hire a car from London City airport. Alternatively you can also get car hire to London City airport for catching your returning flight however this would be a bit bothersome.

Aside from private car hire facilities at the London City airport, there is a complete range of duty free shops. The airport offers shopping on both terminal concourse before security and duty free shopping in the departures lounge after security. You can get a large variety of quality goods at LCY. Designers, last minute holiday essentials, cafÃ©s and restaurants are available at the airport. Taxi hire from London City airport is also one of the best ways of reaching out to your destination from the airport. The countryâ€™s well established and famous taxi hire companies provide dedicated airport taxi services at LCY including estate saloons, MPVs and special wheelchair accessible vehicles. Due to the increased competition these companies provide services at affordable rates.

Getting a taxi hire to London City airport is not a difficult task as the taxi companies of London offer booking via all modes including call, website or mobile application/site. The business travelers book their airport taxis using their Smartphones. This can be done via any Smartphone such as iPhone, Blackberry or Android Phone. The taxi companies have their websites which can be used for downloading their special mobile applications on Smartphones. The mobile applications provide special services such as real time rate quoting, cab booking, cab tracking via satellite, booking management and change of schedule, payment processing via credit/debit cards and much more.
