The Must-See Places of Reading by Steven Ralph

Article published on June 15th 2012 | Travel

Reading is located in the English county of Berkshire. It is a town full of attractions and recreational places and due to this reason; Reading is visited by millions of people from across the globe every year. The increasing amount of tourists in the town of Reading has resulted in great enhancements and developments in the town especially there has been an inclusion of many more attractions and recreational spots in the town of Reading. The town being a part of the royal county of Berkshire which includes the royal residence of Windsor Castle has a great historical and archaeological importance. The town holds a very interesting and significant history. It is a picturesque town ideally located in the Thames Valley. For the tourists itâ€™s not difficult to hire a car in Reading as majority of car hire companies in Reading operate 24/7 for local as well as airport transfer services.

These companies offer high quality yet cheap car hire in Reading to all major cities, towns, villages and airports across the country therefore tourists donâ€™t find any kind of inconvenience in skipping from once place to another in Reading. The town has the distinction of being a home to two of the UKâ€™s top class universities. The University of Reading and the Thames Valley University offer world class educational facilities and millions of students from around the world seek admission in these universities for higher education. The University of Reading also has the distinction of being ranked as the best place in UK for research studies. The University of Reading is ideally located in the Whiteknights area. Aside from this, the Thames Valley University is an affiliate of University of West London.

There are a large number of must-see places in the town of Reading. They offer world class entertainment and recreational facilities. These places include historical spots as well as purely entertainment and leisure spots. Some of the countless must-see places in and near the town of Reading include Reading Museum and Town Hall, Museum of English Rural Life, Mapledurham, Beale Park, Dinton Pastures Country Park, Museum of Berkshire Aviation, REME Museum Of Technology, The Hexagon, Wellington Country Park, Adventure Dolphin, Teamworks Karting, Rivermead Leisure Centre, Central Swimming Pool, Amners Farm and Minature Railway The Herb Farm, Reading Climbing Centre, Riverside Pool, The Ure Museum of Greek Archaeology and many more. Reading cheap car hire can be availed easily for visiting each place without any hassle.

Reading is also a home to UK offices of Microsoft Corporation and Saga, the two of worldâ€™s largest IT companies. The town has a great network of roads which provide connections to all suburban areas, neighboring towns and villages of Reading. CrossCab is one of the leading online cab booking firms serving the town of Reading since many years. They provide all kinds of Reading car hire and taxi hire services to their customers on their doorsteps. CrossCab is originally based out of UK and offers superior class services with online booking solutions via internet, mobile app/site and by calling their 24/7 helpline.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/the-must-see-places-of-reading.htm - Article Side

Steven Ralph - About Author:
The companies offer high quality yet a cheap car hire in Reading to all major cities, towns, villages and airports across the country. CrossCab provide all kinds of a Reading car hire and taxi hire services to their customers on their doorsteps.

Article Keywords:
hire a car in Reading, cheap car hire in Reading, Reading cheap car hire, Reading car hire

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!