The Must See tourist attractions during the Rajasthan Tour by Mike Atherton

Article published on July 7th 2012 | Travel

Rajasthan, home to the Rajputs is a wondrous land with plenty of historical significance. If you love archeology, history or royalty, this is the place to visit in India. A Rajasthan tour package will consist of not only city tours but the whole Indian experience. It will include trips to Delhi, Agra, Jaipur, Jodhpur and Udaipur. Indian holidays are known for their luxurious travel and accommodation in some of the best hotels. The best way to explore Rajasthan is by the golden triangle. This takes you to the capital and the cities of Rajasthan and will ensure you get to visit the Taj Mahal.

Rajasthan marvels

The most talked about city in Rajasthan in Jaipur. Unlike the capital, Jaipur is very dry and full of bright colors. The people dress is traditional India ware and the food here is essential to taste. Rajasthan tours are well planned and you will be taken around by an English speaking guide. This is one of the most visited states in India besides Kerala. The city of Jaipur also known as the pink city is dotted with ancient monuments built by rulers of early India. Indian holidays are memorable and Jaipur is the most stunning of all cities to visit. Stop by Agra on the way to Jaipur and take in the enormous Taj Mahal which was built by Emperor Shah Jahan for his wife Mumtaz. It is a symbol of his love for her.

City tours

The city tours of Jodhpur are marvelous and you will get to visit the forts for which Jodhpur is famous. Stop by the eerie royal crematorium and take a private tour. Do not forget to visit the local markets and pick up trinkets for the family and friends. The colorful and vibrant bazaars are captivating. Last but not least, make sure your Rajasthan tour includes a stop by Udaipur. Known as the city of the sunrise, Udaipur is home to the lake palace. Take a tour of the city palace or get a chance to catch an evening boat cruise on the Pichola Lake. Your India holidays must end with a visit to the Jagdish temple in Udaipur. The beautiful landscape is mesmerizing. Its main feature is the stone elephants and the lotus pool.

Easy bookings

Book at the click of a mouse online and get cheaper Indian holiday deals to Rajasthan and India. Instead of running back and forth to your agent, save your time, energy and book online. If you are hell bent on visiting India book in advance as these deals are very popular. Try traveling in a larger group as this makes it more economical for you.
