The Places you Must Visit in Reading by Steven Ralph

Article published on June 18th 2012 | Travel

Among many of the popular towns and villages of England, Reading is a town located in the Berkshire County. It is a historical town with a diverse culture and traditions. A large number of people belonging to different races and religions reside in the town of Reading and this is the reason why it is called a multicultural town. The town of Reading is one of the popular destinations for tourists and travelers from around the world. Millions of students from around the world come to Reading in search of quality education and living. The Reading being a university town is a home to The University of Reading and the Thames Valley University. These two universities have a great significance in the field of higher education and are ranked among the top universities of Europe. The Thames Valley University is affiliated with the University of West London however the University of Reading is officially known as one of the best research centers of UK. Transportation facilities in the town of Reading include private cars, vans, buses, coaches, trains and taxi hire from Reading to Heathrow airport and all other major airports of United Kingdom.

Aside from the educational facilities, the town of Reading offers fantastic places and wealth of attractions for the leisure and entertainment of tourists. There are fabulous recreational parks, lush green gardens, restaurants, cafÃ©, bars, and indoor entertainment spots. The town being ideally located in the Thames Valley offers wonderful picturesque views all around. Among the must see places in the town of Reading, some of them include Museum of English Rural Life, Reading Museum and Town Hall, Mapledurham, Museum of Berkshire Aviation, REME Museum Of Technology, The Hexagon, Wellington Country Park, Teamworks Karting, Rivermead Leisure Centre, Central Swimming Pool, Beale Park, Adventure Dolphin, Dinton Pastures Country Park, Amners Farm and Minature Railway The Herb Farm, The Ure Museum of Greek Archaeology, Reading Climbing Centre, Riverside Pool and many more. For the convenience of tourists there are many transport firms offering car hire from Reading to Heathrow airport at cost effective prices.

For those who arrive from Heathrow airport and desire to end up at reading as their destination, there are many companies offering dedicated taxi hire from Heathrow airport to Reading. The town of Reading also offers world class shopping facilities for the ease and convenience of tourists and travelers. There are large shopping malls as well as small special shops and international brand outlets. The most popular and oldest of all shopping malls in the town of Reading include the Royal Victoria Place shopping mall which is located in central Reading. This shopping mall was opened and inaugurated by the princess of Wales, Dianna. The small specialist shops in Reading also offer traditional products, handicrafts and antiques to take as gifts on the way back home. Apart from shopping facilities, the town of Reading is also a home to UK offices of worldâ€™s renowned IT firms including Microsoft Corporation and Saga. CrossCab is one of the leading online cab booking firms based out of Reading. They offer car hire from Heathrow airport to Reading and all major locations of United Kingdom.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/the-places-you-must-visit-in-reading.htm - Article Side

Steven Ralph - About Author:
For the convenience of tourists there are many transport firms offering a car hire from Reading to Heathrow airport. CrossCab offer a car hire from Heathrow airport to Reading and all major locations of United Kingdom.

Article Keywords:
taxi hire from Reading to Heathrow airport, car hire from Reading to Heathrow airport, taxi hire from Heathrow airport to Reading, car hire from Heathrow airport to Reading

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!