The Shaftesbury Metropolis Hotel - Stylish, Central, Affordable Luxury by Oliver Lee

Article published on February 3rd 2012 | Travel

With a central London location, just moments away from the historic grassy greens of Hyde Park and a short stroll to numerous transport links - you are never more than minutes away from the many major attractions, shopping locations and nightlife hot spots that London has to offer.

The Shaftesbury Metropolis Hotel in Marble Arch is just a few minutes walk from the famed Paddington Rail Station and offers a range of rooms for every budget, each one comes with modern decor, complimentary beverages, full English breakfast and free Wi-Fi.

Lavishly presented with deluxe bedding, modern bathrooms and views to the peaceful surroundings of Sussex Gardens. The rooms on offer range from carefully crafted en-suite Deluxe Singles with modern amenities, air conditioning and flat screen televisions, to Club Doubles, coming complete with complimentary champagne, contemporary style, luxury furnishings and access to the private club lounge and fitness centre. Each room is designed to a luxury and modern standard, though a classic and timeless style is achieved, which adds further appeal to those seeking a hotel that reflects its historical location in central London.

The hotel itself is well situated and offers a plethora of attractions to explore, all just a stones throw away. Whether your visit is for business or pure pleasure youâ€™ll find everything you need at your fingertips. Superb transport links at the Paddington Rail Station, and the many twenty four hour bus routes, offer easy and quick access to the top shopping destinations and tourist attractions, while within ten minutes walking distance youâ€™ll find the picturesque Little Venice with its famed Puppet Theatre Barge and water transport links to the London Zoo, and an inspired collection of cafes and restaurants along the way, that cater to every taste.

For guests arriving on business, not only does the hotel offer an array of transport links to all the key stations and locations throughout London, it also offers the opportunity to set-up a corporate account which entitles you to corporate rates, secretarial services and complimentary use of the club lounge. In addition to this the hotel offers a Premier club Rewards scheme, where members can take advantage of a diverse set of offers, including complimentary room upgrades, extended check-outs, complimentary fruits and chocolates as well as free local calls and faxes.

The Shaftesbury Metropolis Hotel, is an alternative to other Paddington hotels, with an affordable range of rooms, the exquisite location in Sussex Gardens and the many benefits including the use of the fitness centre, free Wi-Fi, complimentary breakfasts and champagnes that are all sure to make any stay a welcome one.
