Tips to Follow While Finding an Apartment in Phuket for Rent by Scott Riefler

Article published on January 9th 2012 | Travel

Phuket is known for its sprawling beaches, golden sands and glowing sun. No wonder it attracts millions of tourists from all across the world every year. Of the many aspects that make a great trip, accommodation is the most important. When in the city, the best places to lodge are plush apartments to rent in Phuket. Well furnished and comfortable, a Phuket condo for rent can actually render a feeling of being at home away from home!

Whether you are in Phuket for a few days or for an extended holiday spanning a few weeks, you cannot miss visiting Patong, where all the holiday action lies. Located in the west coat of Phuket, Patong is the main tourist resort thronged by tourists every season. Needless to say, the resort s full of lavish Patong condo rental options that can be availed at attractive prices. However, if you are visiting Phuket, here are a few tips that you must follow to find the best apartments to rent in Phuket for short term as well as Phuket apartments for long term:

Location: The closer a Phuket condo is located to the beach, the better it can be for you and your family. Your Patong condo rental can not only enable you to enjoy the picturesque settings of the beach and the surrounding mountains and pools but also help you travel to these exotic locations in minimum time. This helps to save time, energy and money involved in travel. You can get to the beach in minimum time or travel to downtown Patong, located nearby, for the best shopping, dining and night life experience. The Paton beach has several Patong condo rental options that will surely fit your requirement and budget perfectly.

Facilities and service: typically, a good Phuket condo rental is fully furnished and replete with modern facilities that can make your stay extremely comfortable and enjoyable. Some of the luxury features that these apartments for rent in Phuket consist of include free Wi-Fi, nicely equipped gym, fun activities for kids, small pools for children, large main pool with self catering pool bar for adults, weekly maid service and linen change. Therefore, while booking Phuket apartments for rent long term, make sure you get all these facilities as part of the package so that you can stay at them with utmost convenience and enjoy your holiday to the hilt, without bothering about doing the laundry, changing the linen or not burning the â€˜holiday caloriesâ€™!

Price: When it comes to choosing a Phuket condo for rent, especially in the peak tourist season, price can become a major deterrent and may prevent you from renting the best apartment for rent in Phuket. The tourist season usually witnesses the price of every Phuket condo sky rocketing, which is why it is imperative to book a Phuket condo or a Patong condo well in advance in order to save exorbitant rental expenses later. In fact, if you book Phuket apartments for rent long term much in advance, you can bag an attractive discount on your accommodation too!

Hereâ€™s hoping that these tips for finding an apartment in Phuket for rent will make your stay more memorable!

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/tips-to-follow-while-finding-an-apartment-in-phuket-for-rent.htm - Article Side

Scott Riefler - About Author:
Scott Riefler is a a Phuket condo rental developer with 10 years living in Thailand. He has writen several articles on travel and real estate matters relating to Phuket. He also is the Manager of a a apartments for rent in Phuket company. He invites you to come look at some a Phuket apartments for rent long termon his Phuket apartment rent site.

Article Keywords:
Phuket condo, Phuket Condo rental, apartments for long term rentals, Phuket condo for rent, Patong condo rental

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!