Tourists Attraction in Nahan by Rahul Ranjan

Article published on February 27th 2012 | Travel

Nahan is a beautiful town which is located in the Shivalik hills on an isolated ridge. Nahan Tour offers you the opportunity to enjoy a pleasant climate and that too round the year. You can say that the beauty of the Nahan town is such that it is known as the arresting town. Tourists automatically get attracted by the beauty of this town and just donâ€™t want to leave this beautiful place. This beautiful town offers the tourists to enjoy the pleasing and the attractive views of lush green fields.

This beautiful town was established in 1621 by Raja Karan Prakash. This place is also having importance as numbers of saints are also related with this place, land of Nahan. It is believed that this town was named after a saint whose name was Nahan and he use to live at this place, once in his life time. You will amaze to see the attractive and dust free streets of the town. This beautiful city is located at a height of 932 m and it is famous for having numbers of temples, artificial lake and the gardens.

There are numbers of attractive destinations in Nahan. Some of the major attractions of this place are:

Dhaula Kuan: This tourist destination is located at a distance of 20 kms from Nahan. This place is famous for a beautiful orchard which is full of mangoes and citrus plants. There is a factory of fruit canning for various kinds of juices, jams, canned fruits and pickles. This place is also famous as a research center for tropical fruits.

Suketi Fossil Park: It is an attractive and wonderful destination which is associated with the housing fiberglass models of rare pre historic animals. It is said that this is the first park of its own kind where fossils were discovered.

Katasan Devi Temple: This tourist spot is located just ahead of the tourist spot Dhaula Kuan. Here at this spot there is a temple which was built by Raja Jagat Singh and it is built at the spot where Raja in a battle defeated Rulam Quadir Rohilla. Even now the victory of the Raja is celebrated at this temple.

Trilokpur Temple: It is a beautiful city which is located little bit far from the town Nahan. This temple was built in 1573 by Raja Dip Prakash and it is said to be an important temple for Hindus.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/tourists-attraction-in-nahan.htm - Article Side

Rahul Ranjan - About Author:
Author is highlighting the importance of Nahan Tour on behalf of www.himachal-tour.com, which is known portal for a Himachal Tour. It has greatest selection of himachal tour packages like shimla tour, a Manali Tour and Dalhousie tour.

Article Keywords:

nahan tour, nahan tour package, himachal tour, himachal tourism, himachal tour packages.

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!