Article Side

Transfer Services at Luton Airport

by Jocasta Marvin

Article published on July 30th 2012 | Travel

London Luton airport is among the five major airports serving the great city of London. It is owned by the Luton Borough Council and is located at an approximate travel distance of 56 kilometers towards the north of Central London. The airport served more than 10 million passengers in the year 2008 which is an incredibly high traffic rate. London Luton is known as the fourth largest airport serving the city of London. It is ranked after Heathrow, Gatwick and Stansted in terms of total passenger traffic in London. Majority of the air routes to and from Londonâ€™s Luton airport are from Europe however there are some limited flights for Asia and Africa as well. The airport offers all kinds of transportation services for the convenience of passengers traveling by. The transport from and transport to Luton airport is available conveniently 24/7 for the ease of passengers passing through its gates.

If you are going to experience landing at the Luton airport during your next trip to London, you do not need to hesitate as it is one of the major airports serving United Kingdom and has all the facilities and amenities which can be offered by any international standard airport. There are many people especially regular travelers who prefer traveling to different destinations across Europe via London Luton airport. The Luton airport was inaugurated on the 16th of July 1938 by Kingsley Wood, the Secretary of State for Air. It also served as a base for fighter planes during the World War II. You do not need to be concerned about getting your transport to your private residence or hotel in London as the Luton airport cab services operate 24 hours a day and 7 days a week providing superior quality services to all cities, towns, suburbs and villages of London City.

The Luton airport has a single runway which is made out of the Asphalt running east to west. Due to its nearness to the central London as compared to other major airports of London, it is a preferred place even for the local residents of London for traveling to and from different places especially in the continent Europe. Currently, Luton is served by a total of ten passenger airlines and the largest airline operator is EasyJet with its headquarters at the airport. EasyJet is known as the low cost giant and is preferred by majority of the people especially those who are budget concerned and prefer budget over luxury. If you are looking to hire a taxi from Luton airport, CrossCab is one of the oldest, most reputed and well established online cab booking company of United Kingdom based out of the town of Reading in Berkshire. They have been providing comprehensive and economical airport transfer services at the Luton airport since more than 5 years. They provide budget friendly Luton airport shuttle transfer services to their customers without compromising on service quality.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/transfer-services-at-luton-airport.htm - Article Side

Jocasta Marvin - About Author:
a Luton airport cab services operate 24 hours a day and 7 days a week providing superior quality services. CrossCab provide budget friendly a Luton airport shuttle transfer services to their customers.

Article Keywords:
transport to Luton airport, Luton airport cab services, taxi from Luton airport, Luton airport shuttle transfer

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!