Article published on May 18th 2012 | Travel

It is a small and rural village situated at the traveling distance of more than 16 kilometers in the East of Tunbridge Wells. Lamberhurst is a village which is known due to its simplicity and natural beauty featuring lush green grasslands and stunning farmlands. This village was known as the place popular for manufacturing of arms and weapons. It was also known as the village that is home to many of the smugglers. The manufacturing of arms shifted to the big city of Birmingham later similarly the smugglers also moved on to other locations. The village of Lamberhurst is today known as the place where countryâ€™s finest wines are produced. The wines from Lamberhurst are sent across the country and even the world. The village also produces a large number of high quality fruit which is sent to the whole country. The village offers all kinds of transportation including Lamberhurst taxi booking, taxi hire, van hire and bus hire.

There are many places worth seeing for the tourists at the village of Lamberhurst. The historical places and recreational spots provide just about anything to the tourists. Among the worth visiting places of Lamberhurst include The Scotney Castle which is one of the ancient remains of the village. The Scotney Castle provides its visitors with a remembrance of the 14th Century architecture. It was properly built in 1830 and went through many phases until today when it is owned by the National Trust. Aside from castle and garden, there is a classy place for accommodation located on the broad street of Lamberhurst. This place is known as â€˜The Chequersâ€™ It is a five bedroom small inn that offers superior class furnished rooms attached with bathrooms. The Lamberhurst airport cab services are always available 24/7 near the Chequers Inn for easy transfer of guests to the airports.

Besides accommodation, â€˜The Owl Houseâ€™ is also a place worth visiting. It is located in the west of Lamberhurst. The Owl House offers fun and recreation for families. It is a great place with lush gardens ideal for picnics and family outings. The expansive lawns, woodlands, water gardens offer pleasing environment to the visitors. For the solitude lovers, it is a perfect place for quiet and pleasing walks. Knowing about the history of Lamberhurst, it was known as a combined village of both Kent and East Sussex Counties. But after 1894 it was declared as a part of Kent County. For those who are traveling from abroad, itâ€™s important that they make their bookings and confirm their transportation facilities prior to their arrivals. For instance, a taxi in Lamberhurst to and from Stansted airport might become difficult to avail unless a prior online booking is done with a reputed cab booking company.

CrossCab is one of the leading online taxi booking firms of UK and the oldest taxi firm of Lamberhurst. Their taxis provide transfer services inside the village as well as outside village to all major locations and airports across the nation. They offer specialized airports services in Lamberhurst to and from Luton airport, London City airport, Stansted airport, Heathrow airport, Gatwick airport and all other major airports across the country. They have been providing comprehensive cab booking solutions to their customers around the world since many years. CrossCab is known as the most economical taxi booking firm of UK.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/transportation-facilities-in-lamberhurst.htm - Article Side

Mark Edward - About Author:
The a Lamberhurst airport cab services are always available 24/7 near the Chequers Inn for easy transfer of guests to the airports. CrossCab offer specialized airports services in a Lamberhurst to and from Luton airport.

Article Keywords:
Lamberhurst taxi booking, Lamberhurst airport cab services, Lamberhurst to and from Stansted airport, Lamberhurst to and from Luton airport

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!