Article Side
Travel & Tourism Guide for Romford by Adelina Raymond

Article published on July 31st 2012 | Travel

Romford is one of the major suburbs of the great city of London. It is situated at a distance of approximately 22 kilometers from the Londonâ€™s famous charring cross. Being one of the major towns according to the London Plan, it is also the administrative headquarters of the London Borough of Havering. The town of Romford has progressed greatly in the recent past and some of the regionâ€™s best developments have been made in Romford making it state out in the London suburban areas. In the past the town of Romford was a market town however later with the opening of a railway station, the trade became more and more stable, making it one of the best business towns near London. Due to its close proximity with the great metropolitan city of London, Romford has always been on the way to progress and prosperity especially in terms of business and commerce. The Romford private car hire firms include some of the countryâ€™s biggest names such as CrossCab, Hertz, Sixt, Budget etc.

Millions of people from across the UK and the globe spend their vacations and special days in the great city of London. For the newlyweds, London City is one of the hottest honeymoon places around the world. Therefore the people who visit the great city for honeymoon, private tour, vacations, leisure, business or just about any kind of activity, usually prefer to stay in the suburban areas of London City in order to save some buckets. The town of Romford being one of the most developed and modernized towns near the London City, offers cheapest and most luxurious transportation as well as accommodation facilities. For the budget oriented people, there are a wide number of cheap hotels. Some of the popular hotels in Romford include Travelodge Romford Central, The Palms Hotel, Gidea Park Hotel, Premier Inn Romford Central Hotel, Premier Inn Romford West and many more depending on your requirements and budget. Romford airport taxi services are available 24/7 connecting all the major hotels and locations of the town with all five major airports of London.

As, the town is located at a convenient distance from all airports, airport cab services in Romford to and from Stansted airport and all other major airports is not a matter of concern for tourists. This is not all about Romford; the great town offers great facilities along with accommodation and transportation facilities. There are countless places for spending remarkable holidays. Due to its nearness to the London city as well as other popular suburban towns of London, the people staying in the town of Romford get access to some of the superb places for leisure and fun. The recreational parks, grounds, gardens, amusement areas, clubs, pubs, bars, museums, historical sites and just about all kinds of entertainment facilities are sure to be found at the great town of Romford. Some of the popular places of tourist interest in and near Romford include Zombie Land Skatepark, Havering Country Park, Havering Museum, Junglee Fun, Central Park, Bedford's Park, Lodge Farm Park and many more. CrossCab is the leading online Romford cab booking company providing superb transportation services in the town.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/travel-tourism-guide-for-romford.htm - Article Side

Adelina Raymond - About Author:
a Romford airport taxi services are available 24/7 connecting all the major hotels and locations of the town. CrossCab is the leading online a Romford cab booking company providing superb transportation services.

Article Keywords:
Romford private car hire, Romford airport taxi, Romford to and from Stansted airport, Romford cab booking

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!